Mrs. Patience M. Penland, widow of H. M. Penland, deceased, a very aged, well known and respected lady, residing at E[illegible]f, is now at the point of death, after a long and useful life. It is only a question of a few hours at most, when she will join her husband, whom she has survived for many years, in the great beyond.—Clay County Courier.

Some evil minded person or persons recently committed some mean depredations on the Episcopal church and premises here in town. Two of the fine stained windows were broken and the lightning rods pulled out of the ground, and the tombstone at Mr. George Deal's grave was rocked and injured. Such conduct is justly condemned by all our respectable and law abiding citizens, and the perpetrators ought to be brought to punishment.

FRISCO READING NOTICE.

The father of our fellow-citizen, Mr. W. G. Russell, of Cowee township, is still living at his home, near Franklin, N. C., at the green old age of 92 years. He is said to look remarkably well and vigorous for one of such advanced age.—Keowee Courier.

Messrs. G. H. Shelton, M. D., P. H. Bramlett, F. S. Dewey, Thos. Sherk, F. Meinecke, J. M. Segar and W. E. Sherwood, of Detroit, Mich., members of the Southern Development Co., arrived here Thursday evening. They are inspecting their mining properties in this county with a view to commencing work in the near future.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION.

EDITOR FRANKLIN PRESS: I desire to express thanks for your personal notice of myself, as well as an advertisement as agent for the Standard Dictionary, in the Press. I wish also to express my congratulations for the advance movement that the "Old North State" has made in the enactment of the State Temperance Law, recently passed by the party in authority in the State. I could but rejoice over this act of my native state as much as if I were yet a citizen thereof. Well do I remember when a small boy, about the year 1903, I believe, when the Washingtonian Temperance Society was established, and that when it was first introduced my father joined the society, and became an active member and an ardent advocate of the temperance cause during the remainder of his life.

My father was born in 1781, the youngest son of Philip Howard and wife, nee Miss Mary Douthit, in Surry county, N. C. When a young man about the year of his majority, he moved to Buncombe county and became a school teacher, which occupation he continued to follow till about the year 1822. I think it was in the year 1811, that he married my mother, Miss Sallie Fain, daughter of Ebenezer Fain and wife, who was a Miss Simpson. I was born in the year 1821, nine miles west of Asheville, being the fourth child. In 1822, my father moved to Macon county, N. C., and settled in what was known as Smith's Bridge District, near the Georgia line. He bought land and became a farmer. It was here that he joined the temperance society. Like most of the other people of his younger days, he became a dram drinker which was then the habit, as I remember for the head of every family to have a bottle of intoxicants on his fire-h[illegible]er in the cupboard, and it was an act of hospitality to present his friends, when they came to see him, a drink of [illegible] from the decanter.

[illegible] practice established a habit [illegible] drinking, and often led to intoxication. My father stated that this habit had prevailed throughout the country as far back as he could remember. When my father joined the temperance society, he dispensed with this custom entirely at his home and upon his farm on all public working occasions such as house-raisings, log-rollings and corn-shuckings. A great many people became offended and refused to aid him in such work, because he would not have whiskey to give them while they were at work, but he was a decided man and moved forward and hired help on such occasions, and in a very few years a great many people saw the wisdom of such a course and followed his example, and gave their influence to the temperance cause. This had a good effect on the young people, and they grew up and many of them became temperance people.

What a great blessing it would be if the drink habit was entirely abandoned throughout the whole country.

The practice of our father on the temperance cause was adopted by his sons and grandsons. I wish to say that a friend of ours read to us the North Carolina State temperance law as published in the Press, March 1, and I was gratified indeed to learn what an advance the temperance cause is making, not only in my native state, but throughout the country generally. I may say something more on this subject in the future. I wish to remark here that when quite a boy I remember the Rev. Amos Curtis, a local Methodist preacher, who lived near us in Tennessee Valley. The last time I heard him preach, when he was quite an old man, was at a camp meeting located on the old Federal Road three miles south of Fort Hembree, in what is now Clay county. At that time he was quite old and feeble. He preached and administered the Sacrament.

I do not remember the exact time, but it was likely between the years 1835 and 1840. The grandson of this old "Father in Israel" is now the editor of the FRANKLIN PRESS.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.
