MR. AND MRS. SHOOLBRED CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred were hosts at dinner on last Sunday at their home on Boundary street in celebration of their forty-second wedding anniversary. Covers were laid for the following guests: Bishop Jurius Moore Horner and son Junius Horner, Jr., of Asheville, Rev. Albert New and son Albert New, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Camp and son, Everett Camp.

D. A. R. HAS MARCH MEETING

Mrs. John N. Shoolbred was the gracious hostess for the regular monthly meeting of the Docas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held at her home on Branner avenue, last Wednesday afternoon. As the regent, Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, was attending the State Conference in Durham, Mrs. J. H. Howell, vice regent, presided and opened the meeting with the singing of America, Flag Salute, and Ritual.

After the disposal of business a most interesting program was carried out. Mrs. H. D. Secrest had the paper for the afternoon and it was a continuation of the Bi-Centennial Celebration of George Washington. Her subject was, " George Washington, The Christian." The paper was splendidly written and was read by Mrs. Secrest in a most impressive manner.

Following this Mrs Fred Martin, whose lovely voice gives pleasure to all who hear her, sang, "The Father of the Land We Love," a song written by her granddaughter, Mary Wood, at the age of eleven years:

Mrs. Howell then gave Flag instructions which are to be presented at each meeting of the chapter At this point Mrs. Shoolbred read the following poem which was written by her granddaughter, Mary Wood, at the age of eleven years:

Reverence To Our Flag

Hats off, ye people! Here come our Flag!
The Flag we love so true,
No other colors do we love better
Than the Red, White and Blue.

Up to your forehead, your arms to raise
In salute to the Red, White and Blue,
For not only our country does it stand,
But for Liberty too.

Hold this position until it has passed,
Then lower with a reverent grace,
For holy indeed is this wonderful Flag
That stands for the American Race.

This ended the program very appropriately and a delicious ice course carried out in Red, White and Blue was served by the hostess.

The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Harry Rotha, Mrs. S.P. Gay, and Mrs. Fred Martin.

By Mrs. F. B. Camp, Publicity Chairman.

DeWOLFE-MANGUM

Of interest to a host of friends in Waynesville is the following announcement which was received the first of the week:

The Reverend and Mrs. Josiah Thomas Mangum announce the marriage of their daughter, Edith Hooper, to Mr. Daniel Charles DeWolfe, Jr., on Sunday, March 15, 1932, Greensboro, North Carolina.

The marriage took place at Park Place Methodist church, of which the bride's father is pastor, in a simple service at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. R. H. Mangum of Birmingham, Alabama, uncle of the bride, gave his niece in marriage. Attendants were Miss Elizabeth Furniss of Selma, Alabama, and Miss Mary Stringfield of Waynesville, bridesmaids; Thomas Cleland of New York City, classmate and fraternity of the groom, best man, and Robert Mangum Laughlin, cousin of the bride, and Junius D. Metz, of Atlanta, Georgia and the University, ushers. Rev. Mangum officiated at his daughter's nuptials.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. W. P. Christian, pianist, who played the Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches for processional and recessional and "Liebestraum," during the ceremony.

After a southern trip Mr. and Mrs. De Wolfe will be at home at 12 Cobb Terrace, Chapel Hill, until June, when the bridegroom will be graduated from the University of North Carolina. They will then go to Bridgeport, Connecticut to live.

Mrs. De Wolfe is the only daughter of the Mangums, who lived in Waynesville for several years while Mr. Mangum was pastor of the Methdist church.

Since leaving they have spent the summer vacations at their home here. Mrs. De Wolfe is a popular member of younger set of this city and the announcement of her marriage was received with unusual interest. She was graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1931 and is a member of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity.

The bridegroom is a native of Connecticut, son of Mrs. Harriett Howes De Wolfe and the Dr. Daniel Charles De Wolfe, specialist. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

"LELAWALA" IS RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM

The Indian operetta, "Lelawala, which has been anticipated with a great deal of interest for the past several weeks by patrons of the high school, was presented in the high school auditorium last Friday night.

The operetta was an unusually colorful production; the lighting, the costumes, and the setting blended together made a most appropriate background for the presentation of the Indian drama.

James Davis, Indian chief, was dressed in feathered headdress of eagle feathers, worn by a chief of the Rockies. He wore also a beaded buckskin jacket and beaded belt. The heroine, Miss Belle Bright, appeared in an ancestral princess robe of beads and fringed doe skin—the dress of an Indian princess. The scout, "Eagle Eye," Willard Moody, appeared in the costume of an outlawed New Mexico Indian. The setting was enhanced by a number of invaluable Mexican Indian blankets used by the courtesy of Mr. Will Shelton. These were draped around the wigwams and on the balconies facing the stage. Colored lights were played on the stage, enhancing the scenes.

The operetta, in the eyes of those witnessed the production, was worthwhile. The music was lovely, characterized by the cadences and intervals of Indian tribal music. Although very difficult, it was sung with very good effect and interpretation by the high school cast. The high school students are to be commended for the really excellent performance.

The cast included about sixty members of the student body and as amateurs displayed unusual poise. A number of the leading characters showed marked talent and should be encouraged to continue their study of music.

LEGION AUXILIARY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

An interesting meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple with a splendid attendance.

The usual opening with the flag was followed by the business session in the Auxiliary rooms.

The president, Mrs. E. B. Camp, called the meeting to order and after the regular routine a most interesting letter was read from Mr. Harold B. Whitmire of Oteen, thanking the ladies for the gift sent him at Christmas.

A splendid article entitled, "A Million for Defense," was read from the Auxiliary Magazine by the president.

The following ladies were asked to serve as hostesses for the April meeting: Mrs. Doyle Alley, Mrs. M. C. Green, Mrs. J. F. Able, and Mrs. Roy Phillips.

After adjournment the ladies joined the Post members for a social hour when the hostesses for the evening Mrs. Hurst Burgin, Mrs. E. B. Camp, Mrs. George Coble, Mrs. J. C. Patrick and Mrs. R. H. Campbell served delightful refreshments.
