LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The Haywood Post No. 47 Auxiliary of the American Legion held its regular monthly meeting Monday at the Masonic Temple. The meeting was opened with the usual opening exercises and all old business and communications were then discussed.

Under the head of new business, delegates for the coming state convention to be held in Asheville July 17-19 were discussed. It was decided to have a call meeting to elect delegates. The following officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. R. B. Camp, president; Miss Ida Jean Brown, vice president; Mrs. F. H. Saunders, secretary; and Mrs. W. F. Swift, treasurer.

In the absence of Miss Nancy Killian, Poppy Sale Chairman, Miss Ida Jean Brown made her report. Proceeds from the Poppy Sale amounted to $52.70.

The Auxiliary had as guests Mrs. Hendricks, president of the Kiffin-Rockwell Post Auxiliary, and five other members from Asheville. Also a delegation of ten ladies from the Canton Auxiliary were present to meet the Asheville ladies. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the coming state convention with the Waynesville and Canton units. Mrs. Hendricks is also chairman of the fifth area.

The hostesses, Mrs. T. G.Massie, Mrs. I. J. Brown, Mrs. W.T. Lee, Jr., and Miss Ida Jean Brown served delicious punch and cakes during the social hour following the business meeting.

ANNOUNCE DATE OF NUPTIAL

Taken from a California paper.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bowman of 109 East Spruce avenue entertained on Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Jean Bowman, and her fiance, Gordon Miller, at a charmingly planned party. The occasion served to announce the date of the marriage of the affianced couple which is a nuptial event scheduled for June 18. The marriage date was announced in a novel manner when each guest was presented with a miniature match box in the form of a silver booklet which, when opened, contained a candy heart and the news of the happy event told in verse inscribed on a double paper heart.

The bridal motif was carried out in the effective decorations with a doll bride and groom extending from white ribbons attached to the chandalier above one of the tables at which the bride-elect and Mr. Miller sat.

Games were played and a dainty supper served.

Bidden were the Misses Alta Ross, Reva Ross, Elleen Powers, Helen Powers, Florence Ulm, Pat Penter, June Carrigan, Gwenivere Crawford and Messrs. Reuben Adams, Lynn Poos, Joe Ramsey, Phillip Francis, Gerald McLaughlin, Charles Cromer, Walter Nichols, and Gordon Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowman.

The wedding rites are to be solemnized in a pretty ceremony at the home of Miss Bowman's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Bowman, of 728 Nutwood street. Rev. Thomas L. Burdden will officiate.

The bride-to-be has chosen Miss Alta Ross for her maid of honor. Walter Nutlemier will serve Mr. Miller as best man.

Miss Bowman is a graduate of Inglewood Union high school and popular in younger circles here. A series of lovely pre-nuptial courtesies are being arranged in her honor.

Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller, of Waynesville, North Carolina.

D. A. R. HOLD LAST MEETING OF YEAR

Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn was hostess to the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the American Revolution at her home on Main street, Wednesday afternoon, June eighth.

The paper for the afternoon was written and read by Mrs. R. L. Prevost, the subject being "George Washington, The President, and The Home Making of Martha and George Washington." This was a fine paper and concluded the program of study on George Washington that was carried through the winter season.

The magazine review was given by Mrs. Morris and included the reading of the President General's monthly letter.

The usual observance of Flag Day which is June 4 and which given annually by the chapter was led by Mrs. Camp. Singing of The Star Spangled Banner, Salute to the Flag, History of the Flag were concluding numbers on the program.

Mrs. Swift, chairman of Patriotic Education, then presented Miss Margaret Ashton to the chapter. Miss Ashton is a recipient of the State D. A. R. Educational Fund and is a student at W. C. T. C. at Cullowhee where she has made an outstanding record. She expressed her appreciation as one of several who are receiving the benefit of this fund.

MISS PHILLIPS WINS SCHOLARSHIP

The following account is from the Washington, (D. C.) Times:

Her story of the part atnletics had played in her high school career won for Miss Anna Phillips, the scholarship at American University awarded in the essay contest conducted by The Washington Times in connection with the college film, "Huddle," recently shown at the Palace Theater.

The essays, "Are Athletics Essential to a College Career," received in the contest all paid high tribute to the part athletics had played in the lives of the writers.

Miss Phillips said:

"First the athlete must have that greatest of assets to a happy life, a healthy body. A healthy body means a cheerful, well-balanced mental attitude. And the two produce a healthy moral outlook."

The American University scholarship is being awarded by the management of the Palace Theater. The film, "Huddle," in connection with which the contest was arranged, is regarded as the outstanding college picture of the year.
