MRS. ALLEY HEADS BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

Mrs. D. D. Alley was elected president of the Business and Professional Women's club at the organization meeting Thursday evening at the court house here. Fourteen charter members were present.

Dr. Elizabeth H. Ramsey of Asheville, president of the North Carolina Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, was present for the organization and made an address. Mrs. Hugh Monroe, of Canton, president of the Canton Business and Professional Women's club, brought greetings from her organization. A brief speech was made by Miss Mae McFee, of Asheville president of the Asheville club and also corresponding secretary of the State group. Several members of the Canton club which was instrumental in organization of the new club, were present. Miss Rose McFee, of Asheville, accompanied her sister.

Other officers of the new club are: Miss Edna McKay, vice president; Miss Elese Davis, secretary; and Miss Ila Green, treasurer. Mrs. Alley is deputy clerk of the Superior court of Haywood county and has been president of the East Waynesville Parent-Teacher association for the past two years.

This is the fourth new club organized in the federation this year under Dr. Ramsey's leadership as State president, others being formed recently at Charlotte, Kinston, and Thomasville.

MRS. B. F. SMATHERS HONORED ON 80TH BIRTHDAY

Charming in every detail was the luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. Adora Rayne honoring her mother, Mrs. B. F. Smathers. The occasion marked the eightieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Smathers.

Quantities of iris and lemon lilies were arranged throughout the rooms to denote a color scheme of lavendar and yellow and these colors were noted in all party appointments. The dining table at which Mrs. Smathers and twelve of her closest friends were seated was centered with an exquisite basket of mixed spring flowers.

The guests included: Mrs. Smathers, Mrs. C. E. Ray, Mrs. Emma Willis, Mrs. Betty Childs, of Asheville, Mrs. D. M. Killian, Mrs. N. M. Smathers, of Asheville, Mrs. J. K. Boone, Mrs. W. T. Lee, Mrs. P.
