Society News -:- SOCIETY PAGE -:- Local Items

Mrs. Hilda Way Gwyn, Editor - - - - Phone 137

MR. AND MRS. BEN COLKITT OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Colkitt entertained a group of friends Monday evening with a beautifully appointed dinner. The affair was in observance of the fifteenth wedding anniversary of the hosts. For the occasion the house was attractively arranged in bowls of yellow flowers advantageously placed and the room with combination of yellow and green was used for the party accessories. Mrs. Colkitt wore a smart silk clinging gown of the new shade. Fine food and not flowers were the guest's share.

The guests were seated at small tables and became the center piece motif of yellow and green, following the lovely of dinner served was enjoyed. After several spirited games Mrs. Berry Colkitt was found to have won among the women with Mrs. R. L. Prevost low while Dr. Charles Parrott scored high among the men with Mr. James M. [illegible]

The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Stringfield, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. [illegible]

They were motoring the Smoky way of the Smoky Mountains Tours, of Asheville and stopped a short while in Waynesville to have drinks at Alexander's as all the passengers do on these tours. They also visited Mrs. Sarah Cory with whom Mrs. Berry's brother has boarded for the past twenty years.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Rogers have moved to Asheville and are residing at 8 Warren Ave., Biltmore. Mr. Rogers is with the State Highway Commission and was transferred to Asheville.

GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED AT HIGH SCHOOL

A new organization has been formed at the high school the Waynesville High School Glee Club which will add greatly to the musical activities. The club will be under the direction of Miss Grace Crocker who has previously directed several operettas for the school.

The officers of the new club are: President, Lester Poteat, vice president, Mary Penland McCracken, secretary, Erwin Poteat treasurer, Cathrine Martin librarian, Carolyn Rice, accompanist, Sarah Jane Walker. The members elected are as follows: Jane Stentz, David Stentz, Susan Stentz, Marguerite Murphy, Hilda Way, Margaret Morrison, Fred Davis, Bet Bryson, Anna C. Coleman, Hoodenpyle, Susan Arlington, Mary McCracken, Hazel Robinson, Mabel Brown, Willie Rhinehart, Hattie Mae Rice, Inez Jordan, Sara Elizabeth Rhinehart, Ruth [illegible] Dorothy Green.

The club will be 25 cents a month and will be contributed to the fund that [illegible] expense of club, such as purchase of music.

D. A. R. CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING

[illegible]

DISTINGUISHED PARTY GOES TO PARK

On Saturday Mr. Marvin H. Morrison, president of Professor Robert L. Sanders of the J. P. Bryson of Waynesville, Grace Stokes of Montreat, Nurses Park. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. Intzro, Mrs. Byron M. Gilland Stikeleather, Mr. Frank Sally and Mr. Lawrence Holt, of Asheville.

They were making the rounds way of the Smoky Mountains Tours, of Asheville and stopped a short while in Waynesville to have drinks at Alexander's as all the passengers do on these tours. They also visited Mrs. Sarah Cory with whom Mrs. Berry's brother has boarded for the past twenty years.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Rogers have moved to Asheville and are residing at 8 Warren Ave., Biltmore. Mr. Rogers is with the State Highway Commission and was transferred to Asheville.

BLACKWELL-STAMEY

Of cordial interest to friends and relatives of the young couple is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Pearl Stamey and Mr. Paul Blackwell which took place at Greenville, S. C., on the evening of October the 5th.

The bride who is a popular and attractive member of the younger set of Waynesville is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Stamey of that place. She holds a position of instructor with the Enka plant.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell and has resided in Waynesville all his life. He received his education in the local schools and at the Porter Military Academy. He holds a position with the local representative of the Purol Company.

JOHN B. SHACKFORD TALKED TO PUPILS

At the regular chapel exercises on Wednesday morning at the Waynesville Township High School John B. Shackford, who has recently returned after spending four years in China. He talked of some of his experiences during his stay in that country. The [illegible] Shackford [illegible]

MOTORED TO DURHAM

[illegible]

ATTENDING DUKE-TECH GAME IN DURHAM

[illegible]

MRS. BEN COLKITT GIVES CONTRACT PARTY

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the party given by Mrs. Ben Colkitt on Wednesday afternoon. The house was thrown open for the arrangement of the tables for contract. Flowers in shades of orange and yellow made a charming yellow motif. This color was accentuated in all the party appointments and details.

Those enjoying the games were: Mrs. Rufus L. Allen Mrs. John N. Shoolbred, Mrs. Frank Bell Mrs. Tom Lee Jr., Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. Alice Quinlan Mrs. Jack Way, Mrs. J. Weld Seaver, Mrs. J. P. Dicus, Mrs. Marguerite Barron, Mrs. N. M. Medford, Mrs. Alvin Ward, Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Jr., Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mrs. J. C. Breese, Mrs. Grady Boyd, Mrs. James W. Killian Mrs. C. M. Dicus and Mrs. Eugene Alley, Jr. Attractive prizes were presented the winners of the top and low scores.

* * *

RECENT GUESTS AT THE PALMER HOUSE

The Palmer House is enjoying a splendid fall season. During the past two weeks the following guests have been registered there: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ormond Dearborn, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jrith, Hopewell, V.; Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Verhoff, of Statesville, N. C.; Mrs. M. E. Benedict, Miss C. P. Salley, G. W. Frazer, all of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. C. L. Frazier, of White Springs, Va.; Mrs. Hunt Phelan and Mrs. M. H. Sheldon of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. L. C. Bridges, of Thomasville, N. C.; Mrs. J. J. Myers of Walland, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. W. Thezin of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. M. J. Clayton, Miss [illegible] Riley, Mrs. May S. Blakenship, all of Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. [illegible] ship, all of Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. Paul Fought, of Cherokee, N. C.; Mrs. John Paul Jones, Mr. John Paul Jones and Mrs. Ann Jones, of Chicago, Ill.

* * *

MR. S. C. SATTERTHWAIT IS IMPROVING

The many friends of Mr. S. C. Satterthwait who has been confined to his bed for the past several weeks will be glad to learn that his condition is much improved. Mr. Satterthwait was able to take a short drive during the week.

* * *

MAKES BUSINESS TRIP BY PLANE

Much excitement was caused last week by the plane that landed on the golf course. Mr. Fred Slane and his son, Fred Slane, Jr. of Statesville, had some business to transact with Mr. R. L. Prevost president of the Unagusta Manufacturing Company, so they flew to Hazelwood instead of coming by train or motor.

* * *

Miss Ethel Leopard and Miss Vera Breazeale left Sunday morning for Chicago where they will spend a few days attending the World's Fair. Upon their return to Waynesville Miss Breazeale will go to her home in Pickens, S. C., and resume her duties as a member of the faculty of the graded school of that place.

* * *

Mrs. W. B. Matthews and sons, Daniel and Buddy, have returned from Cincinnati, Ky., where they went to attend the burial of the former's mother, Mrs. D. T. Chestnut. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Edna McGee who went with them and Mrs. [illegible] spent several days here before returning to Kentucky.

D. A. R. MEETS WITH MRS HARRY MARSHALL

The regular monthly meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Marshall at the home of Mrs. Sam L. Stringfield. Despite the drizzling rain a large number were in attendance and certainly the attractive Stringfield living room with its glowing fire and bowls of roses gave no hint of the inclement weather outside. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. J. Harden Howell, the vice regent, Mrs. J. F. Alley, presided.

Following the ritualistic service the reports of the officers and the various chairman were presented. Mrs. Kate Morris magazine chairman, announced that a special offer was now being made of the magazine for $4.00 for two years. She urged that more of the members send in subscriptions. Mrs. H. B. Screed reported that she had recently sent a large quantity of best music to Crossnore and spoke of their appreciation of such a gift. She also reported sending some toys to Kentucky.

Mrs. Ernest Hyatt Blackwell, the newly named regent, then called on Mrs. Claude N. Allen, who gave an interesting talk on the Constitution of the United States. Mrs. [illegible]

[illegible]

Mrs. J. H. Well Ways, and Mrs. L. Boone Gwyn. The [illegible] of the state and national organizations that are crystallizing sentiment against the Townsend old age pension plan which is now being made in every county was made by Mrs. R. Campbell, who is a representative of the National Magazine giving to all the message of the President General.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Archie Jones, Mrs. Nanna Shankle of Commerce, Ga., Mrs. Robert Osborne, of Tampa, Fla., a former regent of the chapter, and Mrs. Jack Way. During the delightful social hour which followed the meeting Mrs. Marshall was assisted in serving salad and coffee by Mrs. Stringfield Miss Margaret Stringfield and Mrs. J. A. Way.

* * *

MASTER BILLY DAVIS GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Monday afternoon Master Billy Davis entertained a group of his young friends in celebration of his eighth birthday anniversary. He was assisted in receiving his guest by his mother, Mrs. W. W. Davis.

After many games the children were invited into the dining room which was lovely in its decorations of green and yellow, which were noted in all the appointments. Here ices, cakes and candies were served.

The guest list included: Martha Way, Jane Wyche, Patsy Gwyn, Doris and Bobbie Colkitt, Betty Francis, Carol Louise Bell, Billie and Tootsie Hannah, James Fie, Rex Hosaflock, Paul and Gladys Walker, Mark and John Dicus, Mary Ann Massie, Theresa Alley, Betty Latham, Humes and Allen Harte, Ann Jones, Oledo McClure, Jess and Jean Crouse, Charles and Marguerite Way and Barbara Ann Boyd. The young host was the recipient of many gifts.

* * *

ATTENDED GAME IN ATHERS GEORGIA

Among those motoring to Athens, Ga., to witness the game between the University of North Carolina and Georgia were: Jeff Reeves, William Medford, Fred Ferguson, Aaron Prevost, Billy Prevost, and Joe Welch.

* * *

Miss Martha Mock motored to Durham with a party of friends and attended the game on Saturday between Duke and Georgia Tech.

* * *

Mr. Glenn Palmer, of Crabtree, spent Friday in town on business.

* * *

Mr. Grady Walker, of Fines Creek, was among those in town on Friday from section of the county.

* * *

BUSSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

The Business and Professional Women Club will meet in its regular monthly session on Monday evening, October 22, 1934, at 7:00 o'clock, in the Ferguson building across from the court house. Members will please take notice of the change of in meeting date for this month due to making final plans for Inter-Club meeting the latter part of this month. Buffet supper will be served at 7:00 o'clock P. M., with hostesses as follows for the evening: Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, Miss Louise Moody, Mrs. D. D. Alley. Members and invited guests are urged to phone 125 if for any reason they are unable to be present at this time. There will no individual charge.

* * *

VISIT IN KNOXVILLE

Miss Mary Ashworth Barber, Miss Mary Stringfield, Mr. Douglas Badgett and Dr. Charles Padgett were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Badgett in Knoxville, Tenn.

* * *

Mr. Bowling Hall of Memphis, Tenn., who formerly lived in Waynesville, [illegible] in town on Sunday and will [illegible] Mr. Hall [illegible] Chevrolet [illegible] during his stay in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Thomas had as their guests during the week Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Thomas, of Arkansas. They also had as their guests on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thomas and Campbell Baby, of Asheville.

* * *

Miss Nancy Killian and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Killian who have been visiting in Decatur, Ga., returned to town on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Killian visited the latter's mother, Mrs. D. M. Killian upon their return before going to their home in Asheville.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Owenby, of Canton, are spending a few weeks as the guests of their daughter Mrs. Alvin Ward. Following their visit with the Wards they will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Medford.

* * *

Miss Eleanor Rankin and Miss Elizabeth Rankin of Charlotte who have been at Bluewood Hall and The Wayside Lodge during the summer, left on Tuesday for St. Petersburg, where they have positions for the winter season.

N. Fells Stancil left on Friday for Titusville, Fla., where he will be joined by Mrs. Stancil who is the guest of relatives. He will remain in Florida for a week or ten days after which both will be at home in Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Stovall and Mrs. Stovall will return to Waynesville.

* * *

Mrs. Tom Taliefarro and young son who have spent the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. Robert Mason, left on Tuesday for their home in Raleigh. They were called home sooner than they expected to leave on account of the illness of Mr. Taliefarro who underwent an operation Saturday.

* * *

Mrs. W. L. McCracken and Mrs. G. C. Boston spent Sunday in Brevard. They were guests of the daughters, Miss Eugenia Boston and Miss Martha McCracken who are students this year at Brevard College.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Reed, of Spartanburg, S. C., were the week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hardin, Jr. They brought with them Billy and Paul Hardin, Jr., who have spent the past week as the guests.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Boyd, first a former resident of Haywood county, and now living in Dallas, Texas are the guests of Mrs. M. L. Boyd this week.

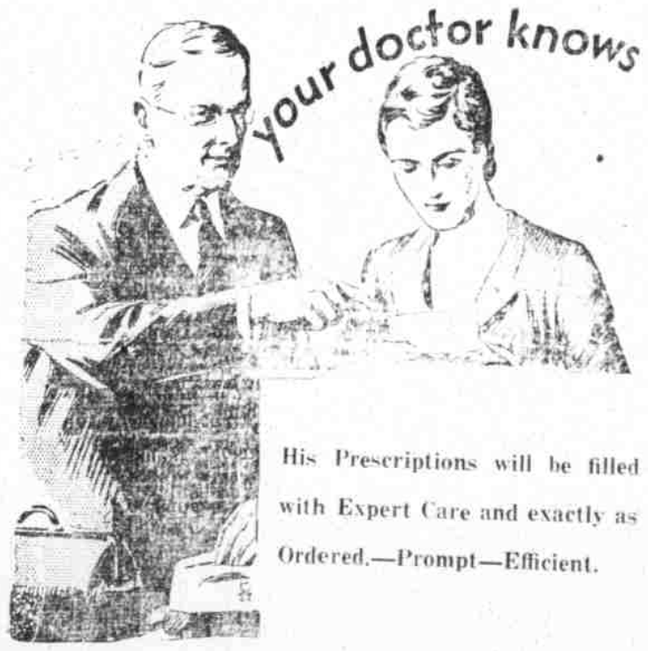
Mr. Carlton Weatherby, Mr. Grady Carroll and Mr. E. K. Hedgecock made up a party motoring to Durham for the Duke and Georgia Tech game on Saturday.

CLOTHING

For Men and Boys

C. E. Ray's Sons

A COMPLETE CLOTHING SERVICE



His Prescriptions will be filled with Expert Care and exactly as Ordered.—Prompt—Efficient.

Our Prices Are Moderate

SMITH'S Cut Rate Drug Store

From Ray's Solid Foods for Fall

Monarch Vacuum Packed Whole Kernel Corn, 12 oz. size	15c
Monarch Golden Corn 20 oz. size	15c
Oriole Sifted Peas 20 oz. size	15c
Sloats Tomatoes, No. 2 Can 3 for	25c
White House Apple Sauce 3 for	25c
Gerbers Baby Food	10c
Michigan Pea Beans 4 lbs. for	25c
Great Northern Beans 4 lbs. for	25c
Yellow Eye Beans 3 lbs. for	25c
Sunbeam Flour 24 lbs. for	92c
LARD 8 lb. Carton	85c
Fat Back Bacon Per Pound	15c

3 for 25c

3 for 14c

A GOOD SOAP OCTAGON FOR ALL USES Giant Size 6 for 25c

IVORY SOAP It floats 4 for 25c

3 for 14c

6 for 25c

LAVA SOAP 5c

"Take work at all with Oxydol" 5c

Pork Chops Per Pound	17c
Pork Brains Per Pound	12c
Spare Ribs Per Pound	12½c
Roast Pork Per Pound	17c
Country Style Sausage Per Pound	9c
Kingan's Sliced Baco Per Pound	24c
Swift's Premium Hams	21c

C. E. Ray's Sons

The best foods and the best values