Child Abuse: Detection and Prevention

Dianne Austin, the Community Service Coordinator from the Department of Child Welfare, Family Services Division, will be at the JCC on Tuesday, December 4.

She will present a program on "Child Abuse: Detection and Prevention." The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Gorelick Hall.

This is a free program which is open to the Charlotte community. Please call the JCC, 366-5007, by Nov. 28 to R.S.V.P.

Yiddish Vinkl

Yiddish is the language of a Nobel Prize winner; it is accepted for credit in the foreign service of our country; it is taught in universities here and abroad; and again, for the sixth year, it is offered in Charlotte.

Whether you're a beginner, knowledgeable or somewhere in between — you're welcome at any time at the YIDDISH VINKL. There is no fee — just come, see, hear, feel, sing and enjoy "Mam'e Loshen" (Mother Tongue — Yiddish).

We meet once a month on Tuesday evenings, 7:30 p.m. in the Luski Youth Center at Shalom Park: Nov. 6 & Dec. 4.

Flu Shot Clinic Offered at 'J'

On Nov. 2 and 16, the Jewish Community Center will sponsor a flu shot clinic with the Mecklenburg County Health Department. The clinic will be open 1-3 p.m. both days.
