Lions To Hold Ladies' Night

The Waynesville Lions Club will hold their quarterly Ladies Night tonight (Thursday) at the Hazelwood School Cafeteria.

The program arranged for the evening will be a preview by Preston the Magician, of his performances Friday and Saturday night.

Also several awards will be presented by President Lee Davis to members of the club. The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church of Waynesville, will serve the meal.

All visiting Lions are invited to bring their wives and attend this meeting.

Mrs. James Ammons of Vancouver, Washington, is here to spend a few months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Blanton, at their home in Hazelwood, before joining her husband, Pvt. Ammons, at Fort Ord, California.

Two Community Tours This Week

The community tours and picnics, which first started on a one-a-week and then a two-a-week basis, have been stepped up to almost a daily schedule to bring the annual visits to a close by the last of August.

Two are listed for Friday and Saturday this week as the number of field days near the half-way mark. South Clyde will visit East Pigeon Friday, and on Saturday Saunook will be host to Hominy. This will be Hominy's second tour of the season and is the beginning of each community either being host or guest for the second time.

Including this week's tours, there are 13 more scheduled for the month.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Sawyer of Allens Creek Road have as their guests the latter's mother and brother, Mrs. Maggie Patrick of St. George, S. C. and the Rev. Marion J. Patrick of Fairfax, S. C.

Kiwanians Hear C. C. Poindexter At Last Meeting

C. C. Poindexter, principal and coach of the Bethel High School, was principal speaker at the last regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club last Tuesday at Patrick's. He was introduced by R. C. Sheffield, chairman of the Kiwanis Education and Fellowship committee.

Coach Poindexter spoke on youth services. He told those present that "boys and girls are the biggest crop in Haywood County. No person, teacher, preacher or any other, is juustified in telling our youth what not to do unless they can offer something constructive to do."

He reminded his audience that there are three different levels of training—body, mind and spirt. "In working with youth," he said, "what you are speaks so loudly that they, the youth, pay little attention to what you say. We must set a good example for them to follow."

There were eleven out-of-town Kiwanians present, mostly from Florida.

The Board of Directors elected President Jimmy Childress, vice-president Bob Winchester and secretary Ray Pleiness as delegates to the Carolina's District Convention to be held in Charlotte in October. Charlie Underwood, Hye Sheppe, Jim Coleman, R. N. Johnson and Oral Yates were elected alternates.

A Florida night program is planned for Tuesday, August 19. The publicity committee is in charge of the program for that night.

Pets Parade In Spite Of Wet Weather

This morning's rain apparently did not dampen the enthusiasm of the youngsters who entered the Pet Parade, opening the bazaar and summer fair being held by the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Episcopal Church.

Around fifty boys and girls proudly paraded their pets through the drizzle, from the Court House to the church lawn. The pets included horses, dogs of all sizes and kinds, cats, turtles, and families of rabbits.

Prizes went to Bud Miller, Carolyn Davis, Lynn Kirkpatrick, Tommie and Gwendy Gilbert, Mary White, George Stretcher, Tommy Worsham, Jo Farmer, Roman Szerenyi, Roman Kolide, Sara Thomas, Jerry Alis, and Mary Atkins.

The Bazaar itself, which consists of booths with various articles for sale, is being held inside the Parish House ,instead of on the church lawn as originally planned.

The booths will close around five o'clock to make way for the barbecue supper which will be served from six until 8 o'clock.

Garden Clubs Plan Annual Flower Show For August 12

The fourth annual Flower Show, sponsored by the Richland Garden Club and the Mountain View Garden Club of Waynesville, will be held in the Waynesville Armory, Tuesday, August 12. This year's theme will be, "In The Good Old Summer Time."

According to Mrs. J. M. Long, president of the Richland Club, the Flower Show will be open to all exhibitors whether garden club members or not, but all arrangements must be the work of the exhibitor. Flowers for an arrangement may be obtained from any source but horticultural specimens must be grown by the exhibitor.

Other rules of the show state that accessory foliage may be used in arrangements but not with specimens. To be eligible for the sweepstakes exhibitors must exhibit in all classes. Potted plants must have been in the exhibitor's care for at least two months.

There will be a prize for the person having the most points both in arrangements and horticulture and Mrs. T. L. Gwyn will give a special prize of $5.00 for the most beautiful arrangement in the show.

The Armory will be open at 8 a.m. on the day of the show and all entries must be in place by 10:30 a.m. The show will be open to the public from 3:00 to 9:30 p.m.

Dr. R. L. Dicks Daily Platform Speaker At Lake

Dr. Russell L. Dicks of Duke University, Durham, is the 11 a.m. daily platform speaker this week at the South-wide Conference of Methodist district superintendents and pastors under way at the Lake Junaluska Assembly.

He is a recognized authority in a comparatively new field of religious counseling, dealing with "religion and health," and he is editor of a monthly periodical by that name.

Dr. Dicks' subject Friday morning is to be "Thy Health Shall Spring Forth," and he will also lead a panel discussion on "Pastors and Physicians Serving the Sick."

At the 8 o'clock platform hour in Junaluska auditorium, Bishop Charles C. Selecman, Dallas, Tex., will adress th econference tonight (Thursday) and the speaker Friday night will be Bishop Paul E. Martin, Little Rock, Ark.

Panels and discussion groups will feature remaining sesisons of the conference, which will end Friday night. Dr. Edgar H. Nease, Charlotte, is president of the southeastern district superintendents, and Dr. Clare Cotton, Tallahassee, heads the pastors' organization in the nine-state jurisdiction. New officers are to be elected before the meeting ends.

Earlier this week the group mapped plans for a jurisdictional United Evangelistic Mission to be launched April 7 and run through May 24, 1953. The nine-state mission, biggest undertaking of its kind in the history of the Methodist Church, will be led by the jurisdictional College of Bishops.

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Charlotte ,has been asked to write the "call to prayer" which will signal the preparatory period of the evangelistic program, starting October 1.

Nurses To Meet In Asheville

The North Carolina State Nurses Association, District 1, will hold its regular monthly meeting Wednesday, August 13th, at 4 p.m. at the Buncombe County Court House in Asheville.

Biennial reports will be given and the guest speaker will be Mrs. N. B. Noell, Executive Secretary North Carolina State Nurses Association of Raleigh.

'Calamity' Pallbearers By Accident

RAPID CITY, S. D. (AP)—Black Hills historians for years have differed on basic facts in the life of "Calamity Jane," frontier gun-moll and close friend of "Wild Bill" Hickok.

At least one disputed point appeared to be cleared up recently. A Deadwood, S. D. citizen, George Leeman, claimed to be the sixth pallbearer at "Calamity's" funeral.

"I was standing in front of the church," Leeman recalled, "and the boys were taking 'Calamity' out and there were only five of them. One pallbearer, I [illegible] Smith, was [illegible]
