Dutch Cove Church Sets Homecoming

By MRS. ELDON BURNETTE
Community Reporter

There will be a homecoming day at the Dutch Cove Baptist Church in Morning Star Community on Sunday. Everybody is asked to come and to bring a basket of lunch.

In the afternoon there will be quartet and group singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Smathers had as their guests over the weekend their son-in-law and daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Potter and Mr. Ramsey of Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Rhodarmer of Chapel Hill spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rhodarmer.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Maxwell of Murphy visited friends in Morning Star last week.

Lt. Bill Rhodarmer, who is stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., and Mrs. Rhodarmer spent the weekend with Lt. Rhodarmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rhodarmer.

Another son, C. V. Rhodarmer, remained for a ten-day furlough.

Mrs. Wayne Burnette gave a cosmetic party Friday morning at her home. Those present were Mrs. Tighe Smathers, Mrs. J. W. Freeman and Ava Jay Freeman, Mrs. Eldon Burnette and Mrs. Ray Burnette.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew Phillips and children spent Saturday in Landrum, S. C., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Thompson and Mrs. B. L. Smith.

Stevie West of Leicester is spending a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Medford.

Roads Engineer Back In Smokies

W. F. Cronn, engineer who directed the construction of the Mile-High section of the Blue Ridge Parkway, has returned to this area after a two-year absence in the Philippine Islands. Mr. Cronn's last visit here was at the dedication of Mile-High Overlook in the fall of 1951.

Mr. Cronn has been re-assigned to this station by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. He and his family will live in Gatlinburg.

Air Force Luxury

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Shirley M. Schnell, a WAF airman second class from Hopatcong, N. J., was Tinker Air Force Base's airman of the month.

One of her prizes: breakfast in bed served by M. Sgt. Charles A. Harris, her first sergeant.

White Oak CDP Plans Program

A special program is planned for the next meeting, July 31, of the White Oak Community Development Program. There will be a number of prizes, including a door prize, prizes to the oldest man and woman and to the largest family attending. A musical program is being arranged, as well as games for persons of all ages.

Ladies are asked to bring cake, but the events will be free.

Plans for this meeting were made at the last CDP meeting on Saturday night, with Chairman Teague Willaims presiding.

Boys and girls who are interested in playing softball with the Community league are asked to meet at the Fines Creek school on Saturday, July 24, at 2 p.m.

Sam Ledford has returned from Texas after spending a month there.

During his stay there, Mr. Ledford underwent a serious operation, but is reported to be getting along nicely now.

In 1953 people in Connecticut made an average of 3,871,000 telephone calls a day.

Champion Films Win High Awards

Three films produced by The Champion Paper and Fibre Company rate high among individual motion pictures entered in 1954 exhibitions and competitive events internationally, according to the current issue of "Business Screen Magazine." Results are based on awards given in 11 separate judgings.

Listed as outstanding are "Deep Roots," a merit award winner in the Cleveland Film Festival; "Good Business," a 1954 Freedoms Foundation medal award recipient; and "Paper Work," a merit award winner in the Boston Film Festival. All three have received additional recognition in the Kentuckian and Columbus Film Festivals.

Groups may borrow the films through Champion's community relations department.
