NAVY SCHEDULES TRAINING CRUISE FOR RESERVISTS

Naval Reservists of the Sixth Naval District will have an opportunity to take part in a mid-winter cruise to tropical waters, beginning January 20 on the USS Pocono, it was announced several days ago by Rear Admiral L. T. DuBose, USN, District Commandant.

The Pocono, with 100 Naval Reserve men and 10 Naval Reserve officers aboard, in addition to her regular Navy complement of officers and men, will visit San Juan, Puerto Rico, and Guantanamo, Cuba, in the course of a cruise of over 30 days. She is scheduled to return to Norfolk, Va., February 24 and will disembark her reservists at that port.

The quota of 110 Naval Reservists making the cruise will include men from the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Naval Districts and the Potomac River Naval Command. The men will receive 14 days active duty pay, subsistence during the entire cruise and pay and travel expense during travel to and from the embarkation and disembarkation points.

Reservists assigned to the cruise from North and South Carolina and Georgia, the three states comprising the Sixth Naval District, will report to the U. S. Naval Base, Charleston, S. C., on January 20 for embarkation.

The Pocono will meet First, Third, Fourth, Fifth Naval District and Potomac River Naval Command Reservists at Norfolk, Va., January 16; will embark Seventh Naval District Reservists at Key West January 26; and Eighth and Ninth Naval District Reserves at New Orleans February 2, in addition to the Sixth Naval District quota at Charleston.

The Reserves will have opportunity for 17 days of under way training at sea, aboard the ship in addition to opportunities to visit southern seaport cities and liberty ashore in Puerto Rico and Cuba.

Naval Reservists in the Sixth Naval District who wish to take part in the cruise should direct their requests to the Director of Training, Sixth Naval District, U. S. Naval Base, Naval Base, S. C., prior to January 5.

Items of Interest from Ballard's Crossroads

Young People of Ballard's Presbyterian church, directed by Mrs. P. J. Elks, gave the Christmas program last Sunday evening.

This was a candlelighting service in which the congregation took part. The service began by singing "Come, All Ye Faithful," and then the Rev. Edwin Coates said a prayer.

Betty Joyner read the Bible references at which time Jo Ann Tyson and Nannie Sue Elks ligted the candles. Several Christmas carols were sung.

Theme of this service was to show that Jesus is the light of the world.

Following this service gifts were distributed from a beautifully decorated tree.

Mrs. G. T. Tyson was hostess to the December meeting of the Woman's auxiliary. The meeting opened by singing, "Holy Night." The devotional, taken from Matthew, was given by Mrs. C. C. Harris, assisted by other members of the auxiliary. Mrs. G. S. Nichols gave the program, "For Such a Time as This," bringing out the fact that at this Christmas season we should not forget to rededicate ourselves to Christ, whose birthday we celebrate.

At a business meeting, the treasurer, Mrs. Elks, reported that the pews for the new church had come.

Members of the auxiliary had pledged themselves to raise the money to pay for the pews. They cost $831 and there was enough money in the treasury to pay for them with the exception of a few dollars.

This money was raised by contributions from different people, and from sales of greeting cards and subscriptions to magazines.

Mrs. Elks reported the Thanksgiving offering for Barium Springs had been sent.

It was voted to send flowers and fruit to the sick in the community.

Mrs. Chester Worthington closed the meeting with a prayer.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. They consisted of fruit jello topped with whipped cream and fruit cake.

The following young people in the community, who have been away at college, arrived home this week to spend the Christmas holidays: Mary Elizabeth Worthington from King's Business college in Raleigh; Margaret Lou Hemby from A. C. college in Wilson; Mary Elizabeth Nichols from E. C. T. C., Greenville; John Flanagan from State college, Raleigh; Edwin Tyson from Tacoma Park, Washington, D. C.; B. F. Strickland from Wake Forest, and Jessie Tyson from Berien Springs, Michigan.

Mrs. Linwood O'Neal spent a recent week end with her aunt, Mrs. Walter Fulford, in Pinetops.

Mrs. Linwood O'Neal visited her sister, Mrs. Bennie Rouse, at Maury last Thursday. Mrs. Rouse had the misfortune to burn herself very badly recently.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bateman were Wilson visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crawford were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eborn Pittman in Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hall, Mrs. R. E. Hall and J. C. Hall of Durham were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harris.

Miss Lucille Ellis from Cedar Grove and E. C. T. C. was a guest of Miss Lillian Harris Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erwin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Jones are spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Billy Oglesby in Selma, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones and C. C. Harris were Goldsboro visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Tyson, Jr., of Indiana are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones are visiting relatives in Meredian, Miss.
