Mrs. Naomi Ware Dead.

The many Gastonia friends of Rev. W. K. Ware, formerly presiding elder of the Shelby district and also a former pastor of Main Street Methodist church here, will regret to learn of the death, at her home in Shelby last Monday morning, of his mother, Mrs. Naomi Ware. She lacked only a few days of being 85 years old and had for the past several years been in failing health. Her husband, James M. Ware, died 34 years ago. She was the mother of eleven children nine of whom survive her. Mrs. Ware had been a member of the Methodist church for 74 years. She was a woman of the highest Christian character and her influence will live. The funeral and burial took place at Shelby Wednesday.

In New Hall.

Gastonia Lodge No. 188 I. O. O. F. will hold its regular meeting Thursday night and will occupy for the first time the handsome new hall on the fifth floor of the Realty building. It is desired that all the members be present at this meeting to participate in the business that will come up and also to see the new hall and furnishings.

—Mrs. C. R. Gray and little daughter Mary, of Hickory arrived in Gastonia last Friday and spent Sunday here with Mrs. Gray's father, Mr. R. B. Riddle.

All White and Clean come the collars, cuffs, etc., entrusted to this laundry. With just the proper finish, the button holes, etc., all intact, too. People have come to call this the "Perfect and Careful Laundry." If you will send us your things this week you'll know why.
