Mercury

Has been more destructive to human health and life than was pestilence and familiee combined." So said a distinguished writer many years ago, and it is as true to-day as then. The poor victim of blood disease is drugged with Mercury to cure the malady, and then dosed with Iodides to cure him of the Mercurial Poisoning; but instead of any relief, the first breaks down his general health, and another him a cripple, and the other ruins his digestive organs. To those afflicted in this way Swift's Specific is the greatest boon on earth, and is worth more than its weight in gold. It audotes the Mercurial Poison, tones up the system, and brings the sufferer back to health and happiness. Every person who has ever been salivated should by all means take a thorough course of this remedy.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Twiggs Co., Ga.

Five years ago I found on my plantation a colored man who was badly diseased. He stated that five years before he had contracted a violent case of Blood Poison, and had been treated by many physicians, all failing to cure him. I treated him with Swift's Specific, and in a short time he was sound and well, and has not had a symptom of the disease since.

D. M. HUGHES.

One gentleman who had been confined to his bed six weeks by Mercurial Rheumatism, has been cured entirely by eight bottles of S. S. S., one particle of mercury, iodide potassium, or any mineral substance.

Write for the little book, which will be mailed free.

Price: Small size, $1.00 per bottle; large size (holding double quantity), $1.75 per bottle. All druggists sell it.

Daily Journal-Observer

A Shrewd Housewife.

Carson Appeal.

Nothing annoys a woman more than to have her husband bring people home to dinner without any previous notification. It spoils the meal all around, for the wife, guest and head of the family. The guest feels uncomfortable, and no matter how skillfully the wife tries to conceal her annoyance of having a poor dinner, the person who had the misfortune to receive an impromptu invitation wishes he was well out of it. There is a State official in Carson who has a weakness for taking people up home to dinner without giving his wife any previous warning. Naturally his better half—for we hold the half alluded to to be the better half—began to devise some plan to teach him better. A few days ago he came in with:

"Sis, I've brought a young man up to dinner."

"Oh, you have." Well, I'll go in the parlor and entertain him while you run down town and get the provisions. Of course when we have company we want something extra."

She sat in the parlor two hours and entertained the guest, while the miserable husband rushed about in the hot sun and got the extra provisions. A great change has come over the spirit of that man's conduct since the occasion.

The Mormons in Cleveland.

Shelby Aurora.

Two Mormon elders passed through Shelby and tried to preach near Casar in No. 11 township. Twenty-five persons assembled at the school house and several persons protested peacably against their preaching their polygamous doctrines in Cleveland county.

A citizen publicly asked them if they were Mormans. This they denied, and said they were "Latter Day Saints." They admitted when repeatedly asked in public, that every man had a right to as many wives as he wanted or could marry, and said: "This was the law of God and had not been revoked."

They allowed the audience to decide if they should preach. There were only three, Wm Parker and his two sons, who voted for them to preach. So they did not think it prudent to preach in Cleveland. No threats were used.

We are surprised that such men, inculcating doctrines subversive of law and morality are allowed to preach in North Carolina. They are a vile crew teaching hellish doctrines. Cleveland is not the place for Mormans and we compliment No. 11 township for not hearing these polygamous emissaries.

Skillful Surgery.

Charleston News and Courier.

A North Carolina girl had her hand completely severed from the arm by an axe. The physician, not being in a condition to amputate the arm above the wrist, replaced the hand, secured it with silver stiches and adhesive plaster, and having bound both arm and hand to a broad splint, ordered them to be kept warm with hot flannel cloth. The third day pulsation could be plainly felt in the hand, which had also changed its color. Says the physician in charge: "I removed the sutures on the fourteenth day, and afterward she carried the hand in a sling, and is now—three months after the accident—able to extend the fingers and grasp with nearly the usual strength."

The Ohio Way.

Detroit Free Press.

An Ohio man just dead made a cast iron will giving his widow $20,000, $200 and $500 each to all the women now maids or widows whom he courted in his unmarried days. This required $5,000. Notes outstanding he destroyed to the amount of $5,000. The hired girl and all his wife's relatives were remembered in small sums. Before his death he paid $40 to two ministers to officiate at his funeral. Immediately after he chartered a train of three cars to take his remains and 116 of his friends to his funeral at West Sonora, O, and also sent cash to the best hotel in West Sonora for dinner for the party. Not a detail was forgotten, even to the floral tribute. When his body was laid in the gound no one in the world had a claim of a cent against his estate, and no one owed it a cent.

An Eye to Business.

Washington Critic.

An Irishman entered the business office of the Critic yesterday morning with the copy for a small advertisement in his hand and blandly inquired:

"Phat will corst ter put this in ther Critic three times?"

"Fifty centy for the first time and twenty-five for each subsequent time," politely answered the business manager.

"Well," returned the son of the Green Isle with remarkable innocense, "jest put 'er in two sub-si-quint times, and here are yez two quarters."

The Beautiful Green Melon.

A beautiful thing it was, and right green was young Mr. Green, who went down to the cellar about midnight and ate about half of it. The next day young Mr Green said he didn't want any breakfast, and he thought he would not go to the store. He wished he hadn't seen that watermelon. By the prompt administration of Perry Davis's Pain Killer young Mr. Green's internal economy was reduced to a state of peace and comfort.

MONROE, Mich., Sept. 25, 1875.

Sirs—I have been taking Hop Bitters for inflammation of kidneys and bladder. It has done for me what four doctors failed to do. The effect of Hop Bitters seemed like magic to me.
