EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION.

A Military Academy and Business College to be Started Here.

Arrangements have been made for a Military Academy and Business College in this city. Col S J Holladay and Maj. A S Carson, recently connected with the Rhodes Military Academy at Kinston are the parties interested in the organization of the schools. They have secured the Harvey building on South Front street and Ellis building directly opposite for the purpose. These buildings are admirably located and will make fine quarters for the institution. The Harvey building will be used as barracks and the Ellis building for the lady teachers' and scholars' dormitories.

It will be known as the New Bern Military Academy and Carolina Business College. The class rooms of these schools will be located in both buildings. The Ellis house is well and comfortably furnished and supplied with all conveniences to make it comfortable and home like. The Harvey house will be suitably furnished with all necessary accoutrements.

The course of study will give the scholar the advantage of a college education as far as the junior year; that is, the schedule of studies ends where the junior college year begins. English studies will be given the greatest care and attention. Two years of preparatory studies will fit the scholar for the harder work in either branch which he may choose. Seven competent teachers have been engaged as instructors.

In the business department the best teachers will be employed and the most approved systems used. All that experience and observation can do to encourage the progress of a good and solid business education will be used in this school.

There will be three systems of bookkeeping taught, viz: Saddler and Rowe "Budget" system; 20th century system and the Williams and Rogers system. In the shorthand the following systems will be taught, Pernin, Eclectic, Gregg and Pittman. Instructions will be given on all the leading makes of typewriters by competent teachers.

The advantage of a military training in connection with the education of a young man is well known. It develops him physically, gives him a power that he could not otherwise possibly command, and endows him from the start with a practical knowledge of the world that is not imparted in other schools.

The institution will be under the control of young men of ability and integrity. Col. Holladay is well known in this section. He has until recently been connected with the Rhodes Military Institute at Kinston. He resigned some time ago and his resignation was accepted only with extreme reluctance. He was with the Kinsey—Debnam Military Institute at LaGrange during two of its most prosperous years. He is a graduate with the degree of A. B., of Orangeburg College in South Carolina, the Chicago School of Law, and the University of North Carolina.

Col Holladay who has control of the entire school, is a man of splendid Christian character, bears an enviable name as a scholar and gentleman, and has many fine credentials from all educators and those connected with educational institutions where he has been associated. He has been connected with military schools for eight years.

Maj Carson has also had a wide experience in business colleges all over the United States. He holds diplomas from many high grade colleges and has taught and owned several good schools. His experience extends over eight years. He was connected with the Business College at Tampa, Fla., as proprietor and secretary. This school is the foremost of its kind in the South. He has also been teacher at Pawnee, Neb., Whistler, Ala., and Kinston.

The term will commence Monday January 11th. There have been a good many scholars secured and others have made applications. They have assurances of a very large patronage.

We believe this institution started under such circumstances will be a great benefit to this city and that it should receive the cordial support of all the citizens.

Notice of Special Term of Court.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a special term of the Superior court of Craven county for the trial of civil cases only, beginning on the 6th day of February 1904, and lasting one week. This term of court is ordered by Hon Charles B Aycock, Governor of North Carolina, on account of the accumulation of civil business in the Superior Court of Craven County, and in lieu of the regular term which would have begun on the 15th day of February 1904. The last legislature made a conflict between the February term of the Superior court of Craven County and the call of the fifth District in the Supreme Court. There will be no extra cost to the county.

J. J. BAXTER,
Chairman Board of Commissioners of Craven County.

Farmers Meeting!

The Tuscarora Warehouse will close for the holidays Tuesday Dec. 22 and open Monday Jany. 4th, 1904. All who buy will be look after Xmas and will be here until the crop is marketed.

SERIOUS FIRE AT CEDAR POINT

L. B. Ennett Loses Gins, Cotton, Barns and Corn. Loss $2,000.

A severe fire visited Mr L B Ennett, at Cedar Point, last Saturday night, about seven o'clock and in an hour property valued at $2,000 was in ashes.

The property destroyed was gin house, barn containing several bales of cotton, one hundred barrels of corn, several tons of fodder, 5,000 shingles, and several tons of cotton seed. In the stables were farming implements which were lost.

There is no clue to the origin of the fire. No insurance on the property.

Mr L B Ennett, is a brother of our townsman, Mr Geo N Ennett, and he is well known in this city. His many friends here will deeply sympathize with him in his misfortune.

Vice President, M L Jacobs.
Secretary, M Disoway.

A Christmas Entertainment.

The Bright Jewels of Juvenile Missionary Society of Centenary Church gave a very pleasant interesting entertainment at the church on Monday night. About sixty children participated in the exercises, and all performed their parts well greatly to the enjoyment of the audience.

White boxes in which they had for a few weeks been depositing their pennies, dimes and nickels were opened and found to contain about $20. One interesting feature of the occasion was a Christmas tree beautifully decorated, around which the children gathered and each one placed a toy, book, game or fruit to be sent to the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh. Then to each one was given from the tree a white stocking filled with candy sending them home to dream of the coming joys of Santa Claus.

Trials of the Motorman.

Electrical publications have had their say about the little thought of difficulties that beset an occupation new to the industrial world, entered upon with little or no preparation, yet charged with tremendous responsibilities. The care and nervous strain of the railway engineer form a hackneyed theme, but no one has ever framed the sympathetic side of the motorman's lot. Yet probably the engineer in his eight or nine hours' run has little if anything more to wear upon his nerves or enchain his ceaseless attention than the man at the controller as he pushes his car along the crowded street with infinite care, yet with all possible speed. Danger confronts him every moment—in the treacherous rail, the weak but unsuspected axle, the imperfect wheel, the chance obstruction of heedless human beings, terrified animals or hurrying unseen vehicles. Perhaps it is a wonder that so few street car accidents occur when we consider the haste with which the busy populace demands to be carried from point to point, the opportunities for mishap in equipment or rolling stock, the always present element of human error and the painful awkwardness of so many persons in boarding and leaving cars.—Portland Oregonian.

The Effect of Sleeping in Cars.

It is the contracting of cold, which often results seriously to the lungs. Never neglect a cold, but take in time Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullien—nature's great cough medicine.

Large and varied assortment of pipes, from 5c to 60c each. A very large assortment of 25c pipes. Duffy's Pharmacy.

A Stitch in Time Saves Nine.

It is not too soon to be thinking about good things to eat for the coming holiday season. So if your dreams do not leave out the golden apple grown in the Sunny South.

My oranges are the best in color and quality, grown from budded stock, they have a decided superiority over seedlings, ranking as "thoroughbreds." As cheery in June as the most delicious quality, sweet, luscious and of that vegetable orange flavor, so delightfully tempting to the most capricious appetite. No planter remembers that my prices will not suite you, for having a big grove (unbudded) to draw from, they do not have to be bought and sold again. Line drop one middle postal to my manager, who will find you at No. 48 Orange St. The Lilliputians to the Golden.

Don't Forget.

FOREMAN.

December, 20th.

The latest news around about Foreman, is the killing of four wild turkeys by Mr Alex Foreman last Saturday morning getting 3 the first fire and 1 the second.

There was quite a successful entertainment last Saturday night at the new school house, near Russell's Creek, which was given by Miss Daisy Brewer, the teacher at that place in behalf of her scholars. The object was to raise a fund to supply her school with desks, etc.

The M E Church building, being erected at Tutts Grove, (formerly known as the Quaker grave yard) is nearly completed and when finished will be a large building and a shining light to the community.

Mr J W Small is at his old trade, trapping bear. Look out Joe, Alex has killed the turkies, you must come next with your bear.

Mr Kora Hinson is building the new school house in our school district and when finished, will be one of the best and commodious school buildings in this section.

We learn that the three young ladies at Littleton College, from our place will not return home to spend the holidays. How's that for low, young men, they beg to be excused this Christmas, but will be home in June. D. E. L.
