MAMMOTH PETITION PRESENTED

Bears Names of 400,000 Women Who Demand Right to Vote

Washington, April 19—With banners afloat and finery aflutter, with a procession of taxicabs nearly a mile long, the suffragists in convention here moved on Capitol Hill and presented to Congress 400,000 individual demands for votes for women. The mammoth national petition was divided into little ones, each nicely tied with a bit of yellow ribbon, and grouped into little bundles of just the convenient size for a suffragette to carry under her arm.

Senators and Representatives from every State received some part of that petition. There was no getting out of it. Representative Wiley, of New York, announced that he would refuse to present the petition of the New Jersey delegation because of the hissing of President Taft before the suffragists on the opening night of their convention. So Mary D. Hussey just marched up to Mr. Wiley and thrust the petition upon him with the invitation to do as he liked about it.

"THAT'S A TERRIBLE COUCH

you have," remarked one man on the street the other day to another. you bet it is, "was the reply and I have taken so much cough syrup that my stomach is all knocked out, and the cough still hadgs on." That's the way valuable time is wasted Cough syrups are only palliatives. It you want to stop that cough, cure the cause by taking Vinol F S Duffy Druggist New Bern N. C.

Another Detective Story

The experiment of publishing in weekly instalments the best detective and mystery stories, which was begun by the New York Sunday World six months ago, has proved a great success. That newspaper now announces that on Sunday, May 1, it will begin publication of "That Mainwaring Affair," the exciting realistic romance written by Ralph Henry Barbour.

The Norfolk-North Carolina Waterway

(Correspondence Norfolk (Va.) April, 13th. 1910.

To the Editor of the Landmark:—Knowing your readers are deeply interested in a free waterway from Norfolk to Albemarle Sound, N. C., I shall endeavor to give you the latest reliable information on the subject.

Through the earnest influential labor of Senator Simmons, there has been incorporated in the Rivers and Harbor bill authority and instruction to the Secretary of War to purchase either the Albemarle and Chesapeak, or the Dismal Swamp canal, but his authority is limited to the purchase of the route recommended by the latest Board of Engineers selected to decide on the most practical water line from the Elizabeth River to the Albemarle Sound.

The bill further provides that the most economical route must be selected and that the route selected must be made twelve feet deep and as near as possible, a sea level canal.

The A. and C. Canal was offered to the Government for $600,000 while the price asked for the D. S. Canal was $1,750,000.

The people of Eastern Carolina and Virginia will ever owe to Senator Simmons a debt of gratitude for his successful labor in behalf of this legislation. He has done a wonderful work for Norfolk and 3000 miles of water front in North Carolina, by securing this free waterway for our section.

Hurrah for the N. C. and Va. free waterway and Senator Simmons.

N. & S. Railway Affairs

Washington, April 19.—The affairs of the Norfolk and Southern Railway Company were brought today to the attention of the Supreme Court of the United States when counsel for a syndicate of capitalists asked the court to review the decision of the lower Federal courts in which the syndicate was denied an opportunity to convene in the fore closure court begun in the Circuit court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia, by the Trust Company of America. The court took the matter under consideration.

The syndicate, which the counsel explained, included Frank O. Zeit, J. W. Van Dyke, R. C. Folger, Jr., Charles N. Murdock, Samuel T. Murdock and Charles H. Burr, entered into an agreement with a re-organization committee of the bondholders of the road. It was in connection with this agreement that the syndicate desired to intervene in the court below.

MERCHANTS THREATEN SUIT

Possible Result of Wilmington Blind Tiger Fight. Citizens to Work for Law Enforcement

Wilmington, April 19.—From indications the "blind tiger" situation in this city is soon to reach an acute stage. Many citizens have banded themselves together, and they announce that they intend to work for the enforcement of the law. Some startling disclosures are promised.

The organization has delivered its proclamation and publishes a list of over 100 merchants and proprietors of soft drink establishments, which they contend hold United States liquor licenses. However, in the list they overlooked the fact that the merchants have to hold a United States license to sell oleomargarine and they published some of the leading merchants, mostly big prohibitionists, as holding United States liquor licenses.

This has brought forth vigorous protests, and the merchants waxed wrothy over it, some threatening to sue for libel. The committee made a retraxit as to these merchants, but the matter is still boiling. What will develop now in the organization is awaited with interest, as it is plainly apparent here that whiskey as well as beer is being sold in many places.

Vagaries of a Cold.—You can never be quite sure where a cold is going to hit you. In the fall and winter it may settle in the bowels, producing severe pain. Do not be alarmed nor torment yourself with fears of appendicitis. At the first sign of a cramp take Perry Davis' Pain killer in warm, sweetened water and relief comes at once. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis.

Hon. D. L. Ward For Judge

Kinston Free Press 19th.

We are glad that the Kinston bar has endorsed Hon. D. L. Ward for the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge O. H. Guion, of New Bern Mr. Ward is an able lawyer and a fine character in every respect. He served his district and state most acceptably as senator in the general assembly of 1905, and as Judge his services would be no less conspicuous for their merit. It is to be hoped that Governor Kitchin will appoint Mr. Ward to the vacancy.

Senators Martin and Simmons do Great Waterway Work.

[Editorial Norfolk (Va.) Landmark of April 13th.]

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, acted in accordance with the suggestion the Landmark made when this paper saw what he had done for the waterway appropriations for other parts of his state. It will be remembered that we asked why he might not get to work in behalf of this end of the Norfolk-Beaufort Waterway. We don't know and we don't claim that our pointer had any thing to do with his "getting busy" at this end, but he did it, and that's the important thing. Senator Martin helped as was to be expected.

The amendment as adopted by the Senate Committee should remain in the bill as it passes Congress in its final shape. There will be a great fight to get it out of the bill, perhaps, before final passage, and there will certainly be a fight to keep the whole bill itself from passing. The everlasting Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, who makes these solitary bloody-shirt speeches against the statue of Lee, is plotting that he may conclude to talk the River and Harbor bill to death at this session, as Senator Carter, of Montana did some years ago. Wouldn't it be "awful" to lose it in that way after getting looked after so justly in the bill? Fortunately, the United States navy yard is concerned in our 35-foot channel amendment, which Senator Martin drew, and that ought to help the bill a good deal.
