Visit the graded school today and hear the examinations.

Mr. F. M. Simmons offers a house, thoroughly renovated and repaired, for rent. See ad.

Huckleberries have appeared in market, but command fancy prices. Only ten cents per quart.

The steamer Experiment arrived on Tuesday night, from Baltimore with a cargo of general merchandise.

Declamations by the boys and reading essays by the girls of the graded school at the theatre tonight. Give them a good audience.

The Baptist Sunday school had a large crowd with them on the excursion to Morehead City yesterday and a most pleasant time was had. Only a slight sprinkle of rain this year.

The genial countenance of Maj. Credle smiled upon us last night. He was too late to be interviewed on the crop prospects, but he looks like he has been planting rice in a stumpy new ground. He leaves this morning, so creditors need not be in search of him.

The steamer Cleopatra leaves this morning on regular schedule for her points on lower Neuse river, connecting at Bell's Mill (Harlowe) for Beaufort, Morehead City, Swansboro and all points on Bogue sound and White Oak river. Prompt delivery and low rates guaranteed.

Mr. M. Patterson is collecting material on the old site of the Central Hotel for a new building. He is yet undecided whether he will construct a hotel building or stores. There are stores enough already in New Berne; give us a hotel with such conveniences as Northern visitors demand and there will be some inducement for them to spend the winter down here.

Special Truck Train.

The A. & N. C. R. will run a special truck train today leaving New Berne at at out 2 o'clock.

Ascension Day.

Services at Christ church, with the celebration of the Holy Communion, at 11 o'clock this morning.

Resignation Withdrawn

By reference to the city council proceedings it will be seen that Councilman J. W. Moore withdrew his resignation which was tendered on the night of the organization. We publish elsewhere a petition signed by a large number of Democrats of the 3d Ward, which accounts for Mr. Moore's action in withdrawing his resignation.

Look Out for The Pantry!

On Tuesday evening Capt. Powell's family, residing on Middle street, closed the house and went to spend an hour with a neighbor, and during their absence some hungry thief entered the back window of the kitchen, proceeded to the dining room and relieved the pantry of all the cooked victuals left for supper and for dinner on the next day. Daylight will not deter a thief every time, so it is well enough to look out for them.

The Superior Court.

The civil docket was disposed of yesterday and the jury discharged. Judge Shepherd will be at the court house this morning for the purpose of approving the minutes and winding up any unfinished business remaining. He has worked like a Trojan since opening court on Monday morning, May 24th, and by his rapid disposal of business has saved to the county considerable expense. His demeanor on the bench is such as to restore the old time dignity of the bench, which is much needed in North Carolina.

The Steamer Carolina.

The steamer Carolina lay at her berth yesterday afternoon dressed as for a holiday. The gulls has been frightened up on all her upper structure, curtains hung round the main saloon, benches and chairs arranged for about two hundred passengers, with a private saloon for ladies finely furnished with upholstered chairs, sofas, lounges, mirrors, and [illegible] are [illegible]

The management have stated that for special use of committees, upon one of which the writer sat this morning for the thriving village of Morehead, with a small space of pleasure seekers in tow.

The Pamlico Section of North Carolina

Mr. Jonathan Havens has written and Messrs. N. S. Richardson & Son have published an excellent and very valuable pamphlet, bearing the title of "The Pamlico Section of North Carolina."

It is a work of eighty-eight printed pages, and embraces the counties of Craven, Pitt, Beaufort, Pamlico, Hyde, Dare, Carteret, Onslow, Lenoir and Jones, and contains valuable and specific information in regard to them all. The pamplet was written and published under the auspices of the New Berne Improvement Association, the objects and aims of which are set out in a prospectus of the same. The writer starts out with a general description of the Pamlico section, its climate, early settlement, forest and scenery, in which he presents the climatic advantages and resources of soil in a manner to attract the attention of persons in distant lands, in search of pleasant homes in advantageous localities. His remarks on the early settlement of this section are a valuable contribution to one of the most interesting chapters in American history.

The full scope of the work may be inferred from a glance at the following table of contents: New Berne, canning, ship building, cattle raising, tobacco, grapes, oyster beds of Eastern Carolina, trucking, railroads, New Berne and Beaufort Canal, Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal, immigrants, the people of Eastern Carolina, finance, routes to the Pamlico section, etc.

The work throughout shows the impress of a mature, observant mind, well digested thought and ripe experience, and throughout the eighty-eight printed pages, Mr. Havens has interested his readers, and by his contribution to the material and industrial literature of the day, Mr. Havens has conferred a lasting benefit upon his people and section, for which he deserves the public thanks and a full measure of pecuniary reward.

Visit the School.

We again remind the citizens of New Berne that the oral examinations in the graded school will be held today, and they should attend and see for themselves as far as possible what the school has done. It is a worthy institution, and we unhesitatingly say that it ought to be sustained.

U. S. Commissioner Appointed.

The U. S. States' circuit court for the Eastern district of North Carolina has appointed W. W. Clark, Esq., of this city United States Commissioner, vice Commissioner, W. J. Clarke deceased. A most excellent appointment.

The Graded School.

It is hoped that as many of the citizens as possible will accept the invitation to visit the Graded School today, between half past nine and half past eleven o'clock. Many of the patrons of the school have never been there and may not have another opportunity. They should go.

The exercises at the theater, tonight, will be very interesting to the friends and patrons of the school, and they are cordially invited to be present. The contest for the Declaimers' Medal will be between Eddie Clark, Martin Schwerin, Walter Willis, Roscoe Nunn and Allie Powell.

The young ladies who will read in the contest for the Essayist Medal are Misses Myra Burrus, Hattie Daily, Victoria Dixon, Mary Brown, Ella Hanks, and Janie Brown. Misses Mamie Meadows and Nellie Walker will furnish the music.

Mr. Jas. W. Moore, City:

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned request that you withdraw your resignation as councilman, and remain in the board until further developments may render your resignation indispensable. We sympathize with you and endorse you as a faithful officer and loyal Democrat.

Respectfully,

Wonderful Cures.

W. S. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been quickly cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Burned to Death and Restored to Life

I know of a man near Maxey's, Ga., who for ten or twelve years was almost a solid sore from head to foot. For three years his appearance being so horribly repulsive, he refused to let any one see him. The disease, after eating his flesh, commenced on his skull bones. He tried all doctors and medicines without benefit, and no one thought he could possibly recover. At last he began the use of B. B. B., and after using six bottles, his cures were all healed and he was a sound man.

He looks just like a man who had been buried to death and then resurrected to life. The last time of the county know of the case, and several doctors and merchants have spoken of it as a most wonderful case.

Kinston Items.

C. C. Daniels, of Wilson, was in town during a part of the District Conference.

Miss Maggie Holland and Mrs. C. K. Hancock, of New Berne, were the guests of Mrs. Street during conference week.

One of the finest and funniest reports on prohibition and Sunday-schools was made by Rufus W. Bell, of Harlowe creek, Carteret county.

R. F. Steadman has been in town recently selling North Carolina tobacco. If we use tobacco at all, let us use the home production.

D. W. Davis, Evangelist in Jones and Onslow counties, was in town Thursday for the purpose of taking J. R. Tingle to the Disciples' Union Meeting at Union Chapel, near Catharine Lake, Onslow county.

Mr. J. F. Cowel, of Bayboro, Pamlico county, was one of the handsomest young gentlemen in attendance of the conference. His history as told us by a friend bears strong testimony to his worth, and it is not necessary that such a man should die to be praised.

Ashley S. Johnson delivered a very forcible, pointed speech on prohibition at the opera house Monday night. A club was formed, and the canvass is becoming lively. The opponents are also at work, and our people will say by their ballots on next Monday whether they will retain whiskey with its evil consequences, or move the curse from our town.

The closing exercises of Bethel Academy, Lenoir county, which were on last Friday and Friday night (Miss Rachel Scarborough, teacher) were in every way a grand success. At 10 a. m. N. J. Rouse, Esq., of our town, delivered the annual address on "Our times," which received many deserved compliments. This was followed by declamations and dinner. At night declamations and other exercises, interspersed with music, were rendered in excellent style. Next term opens on 3d Monday in August.

Saturday brought a considerable increase of attendance of the conference, Dr. Burkhead and Dr. Dixon among the members. The district parsonage debt was left to the trustees with instructions to confer with the stewards as to its payment. The reports on temperance, education and Sunday-schools gave no uncertain sound. The next conference will be at La Grange. Preaching at all the churches on Sunday, and a Sunday-school mass-meeting in the afternoon.

Great Chicago Strike!

It is generally known throughout the whole country that large strikes are being made among the laboring classes in some of our largest cities, such as Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. Some have been wounded for life and some have lost their lives. The question now arises, what shall be done to keep the peace in Eastern North Carolina? The farmer cannot afford the eight hour system at the present prices of produce, neither is the laboring man satisfied with the present prices of labor. Some relief must be had; something must be done; some one must come to the front and devise some scheme by which the people may be relieved from such a tyrannical oppression. In view of the foregoing facts, and in the absence of any relief from other sources, we suggest that the quickest and most satisfactory way of keeping down strikes and dissentions among the laboring classes of Eastern North Carolina is to make the prices of goods and supplies in conformity to low wages, and in making the suggestion we hereby announce to the public that we propose to act upon it, and direct everybody, laboring classes and all, to the great cheap cash store of Humphrey & Howard, where they will find a large and complete stock of groceries and dry goods at strike prices. The most vital strike in life is the strike for ways and means which guarantees you perfect satisfaction at the least cost, the strike then for the great cheap cash store of Humphrey & Howard will certainly obtain for you the lowest possible prices, thereby alleviating all past troubles and guaranteeing you peace, prosperity and happiness in the future.—m26dw1m
