Cold rain yesterday.

Pork has declined a little but cotton still boometh.

W. F. Hill has flour and pork in abundance, which he wants to sell cheap.

It was reported in the city yesterday evening that a heavy snow was falling in Raleigh.

Capt. Jere Abbott is collecting material for a new dwelling on the corner of East Front and King streets.

Our attorneys have returned from Jones court and are preparing for Onslow which convenes next Monday.

The wood boats complain about not being able to pass the railroad bridge. We believe the draw has been repaired and is now in condition to be opened.

The athletic games of the Athletic Association of the Davis School at La Grange will be held on Thursday and Friday afternoons, April 14th and 15th.

The Irish potato crop is thought to be damaged one-fourth by the recent cold snap. The younger peas—those that were not in bloom—are not damaged to any great extent.

We are informed that the Committee on Streets have investigated the matter of the fine imposed upon Moses Williams, col., for removing dirt from the streets and will report at the next meeting of the board of council.

The new well at the junction of Middle and Graves streets, bored by Mr. A. W. Cook, is said to be one of the best in the city. It is curbed with ten inch iron pipe, and is over seventy feet deep. The Blisby engine tested it yesterday for twenty minutes and found an inexhaustible supply of water.

The Jewels at the cotton exchange yesterday, being without a quorum, owing to the absence of the president, Mr. Geo. A. Oliver, and the recording secretary, Mr. Jonathan Havens, have been unable to decide as to the prospects of the truck crop. They are of the opinion that the cotton crop the ensuing year will be better than the crop of last year; that the price will be at a lower figure, and the quantity marketed in New Berne will be less.

We find in the New York World, March 30, that one Walter S. Lawton has been speculating in Wall street. The American Fuel and Light Company has procured an attachment against him to recover, as they allege, funds that he has appropriated to his own use. Among the items of alleged embezzlement are two first mortgage bonds for $500 each, belonging to the Kinston Cotton Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Jonathan Havens gives us the following information: The schooner Sarah Wells sailed from the port of New York for Jacksonville, Fla., on the 19th inst., and was spoken by one Adrian Hook on the Hudson river in the year 1844. Her dimensions were as follows: Length of keel, 75 feet; breadth of beam, 22 feet 6 inches; depth of hold, 11 feet 6 inches. The last person made in her was Jeremiah Cole, sailing master. As Hook was then a young man, he knew but little of her previous history.

Auxiliary Y. M. C. A.

The ladies of Raleigh have organized an auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. of that city, to assist in promoting evangelical religion among young men, and to make the rooms of the association comfortable and attractive.

With the proceeds from an entertainment, which they had recently, and donations from individuals, they have fitted up a parlor and reading room and are now engaged in making the rooms of the association pleasant and attractive, and are rendering the aid which only ladies know how to give.

The above facts we gather from a letter addressed to the "Secretary of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. New Berne, N. C.," but unfortunately we have no such organization. We are glad, however, that the ladies of our city are moving in this direction. That they have most nobly responded to the appeals of the association here in the past, all will testify who have visited the reading room and have seen the beautiful carpet and fine collection of books, the gifts of the ladies. Yet much remains to be done. The room, in which the devotional exercises are held, is far from attractive. Notwithstanding there are many obstacles in their way, the young men are doing a good work. It would be unwise for them to raise among themselves all the means they need, as such a course would drive from them many young men whom they desire to benefit. We ought not expect them to do more than meet their running expenses, as it takes no small sum for rent, hire of janitor, and incidentals.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. are anxious to have the ladies co-operate with them and most cordially invite them to do so. We sincerely hope that the ladies will at once perfect an organization for the purpose of making the rooms of the Association comfortable and attractive, and we believe they will. It can truly be said of the ladies of New Berne that they are always ready to do what they can for every good work, and that they succeed in what they undertake.

Steamer Movements.

The steamer Eagle of the E. C. R. Line sailed promptly at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and, among other freights, notwithstanding the bad weather, had several packages of truck.

The Kinston, of the N. & T. R. S. Line, sailed for Kinston at 12 m. yesterday with a cargo of general merchandise and fertilizers. The Blanche, of the same line, left for Snow Hill with a similar cargo.

Washington Items.

Mrs. O. H. Guion is visiting relatives in our city.

Mr. F. S. Stickney has completed the compilation of the Life of the late Pasmer B. Satterthwaite. It is now going through the press and will be ready for delivery in about thirty days.

Your correspondent has been delighted in reading that truly able and scholarly work entitled "Genesis and Geology," from the pen of Dr. N. Collin Hughes. It is a complete refutation of the assumption that Moses and Geology are contradictory. The book will have a large sale, as it deserves.

Messrs. Erdman, Miller and Hahn of your city have been over. Erdman had a rush in cigars, judging from the number of orders he received. It is conceded that Erdman manufactures the best cigars south of Baltimore. Wonder if he advertises in the JOURNAL?

A most scientific and skillful surgical operation was performed on Wiley Potter last Sunday by our young and popular physician, Dr. D. T. Tayloe. Mr. Potter has been suffering a long time with a very painful and diseased arm, and every effort had been made to save it, but when it was inevitable that amputation must take place he entrusted himself to Dr. Tayloe, who made one of the finest surgical operations. Mr. Potter is from Craven.

Is it the Herald pigeon? This question is being discussed on our streets. When the Dauntless and Coronet left New York for an ocean race across the Atlantic, the New York Herald placed carrier pigeons on board. At the end of the second day the first pigeon was liberated, and the fourth day the others were set free with proper messages to bear to the Herald office, but the pigeons never returned. On the eighth day, however, a pigeon struck the residence of Mr. R. S. Hoyt of this town, completely exhausted. The pigeon has the semblance of those described by the Herald, except no stamp upon the wing. Is it the Herald pigeon? Mr. Hoyt is a newsdealer and sells the Herald.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at R. N. Duffy's drug store as their giving away at free possession of as many bottles that should of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous, this very valuable article has proved to be just what it always claims to be, viz: a cure for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Croup, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Trial bottles free at R. N. Duffy's drug store.

NEWS NOTES.

The teasers, mixers and filters in all the glass factories of the country have demanded a ten per cent. advance in wages, to take effect on April 1.

At Dryden, Texas, a west-bound engine and caboose smashed into a freight train coming east, causing a serious wreck. Engineer McCamless was killed.

Mr. Davis, the proprietor of the Bat newspaper, London, has been sentenced to three months in jail and to pay a fine of £500 for libeling Mr. Peek, the well-known turfite.

Considerable damage to the potato crop is reported in southern Louisiana from a disease which is called the blight, and which was unknown in that section until now.

Supervisor O. M. Bates, of the town of Gardiner, Ulster county, New York, has failed for $40,000 and fled to Canada. He is said to have forged notes to the amount of $15,000.

A collision occurred on the Southern Pacific Railroad, three hundred miles west of San Antonio, causing severe breakage. Engineer M. C. Camless was pinched and scalded to death.

In Chicago on Wednesday the National Association of Builders completed their organization and adopted as their name "The National Association of Builders of the United States."

An explosion of gas occurred on Wednesday in the Von Storch mine, at Scaton, Pa., killing Thomas Lewis and Edward Owens. Eight men were slightly and two seriously injured.

The will of Eliza Goodwin, the wife of N. C. Goodwin, jr., the actor, bequeaths to Mrs. Eliza Smith, of London, England, her mother, $8,000, and the rest of her estate to her husband.

It is stated that James G. Blaine has completed his arrangements for a European tour that will keep him abroad until after the meeting of the next national Republican convention.

The coal miners and coke laborers at the Monastery Works, Latrobe (Pa.) Coal Company's mines, and the works of the Ridgeway and St. Clair Companies have struck for an advance in wages.

The trouble between the two labor organizations, the Knights of Labor and the Amalgamated Association of Miners and Mine Laborers, was settled at Pittsburg on Wednesday by a conference of the leaders.

The laborers employed in the erection of the extensive additions to the Equitable Building, New York, went on strike on Wednesday because of the employment of two non-union men to put up electric wires.

James Lockhart, baggage-master and Adams' Express agent on the Pan Handle road between Wheeling and Steubenville, shot and killed himself Wednesday. Domestic difficulties and drink are assigned as the cause.

The Senate committee of the New York Legislature on Wednesday heard arguments on Senator Murphy's bill to give a portion of the New York city school money to the Catholic Protectory. No action was taken.

George F. Parker, of New York, the president of the British-American Claim Agency, charged with swindling, and whose trial resulted in quashing the indictment against him, was on Wednesday released on bail.

An old man, believed to be named James W. O'Brien, was run over Wednesday on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, at Wilmington, Del., and sustained injuries which caused his death in a few hours.

Governor Hill on Wednesday sent a special message to the New York Legislature on the subject of special legislation. The message is believed to be aimed at the high-license bill for New York and Brooklyn, recently passed by the Assembly.

William M. Howe, aged twenty-two years, shot himself through the head in the front parlor of Mrs. Hearsey's residence, Fourth avenue, New York city, Tuesday night, and died instantly. He had been paying attentions to Mrs. Hearsey's daughter. His friends attribute the rash act to despondency.

"Died of ammonia, poor fellow," said the renowned Mrs. Partington, on learning of a friend's death from pneumonia. "I believe I should have died, too, but for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It stirred up my cold and drove it away." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup she means, of course.

Heavy Snow Fall.

LYNCHBURG, Va., March 31.—A heavy snow storm has prevailed here since 3 o'clock this morning. The signal service observer reports four inches fall up to 11 o'clock. The snow on the adjacent mountain is not less than ten inches in depth.

Reports from Tazewell county say a terrific thunder, hail and snow storm visited that section. Hailstones an inch in cirrumference fell, and the lightning was terrific. Many telegraph poles on the line of the Norfolk and Western Railroad were split to pieces, and several instruments in telegraphic and telephone offices along the route were destroyed. It was the most terrific ever known in that section.

STAUNTON, Va., March 31.—Snow has fallen to the depth of three inches, and is still falling rapidly.

WINCHESTER, Va., March 31.—A heavy snow storm has prevailed here all day. Snow has fallen to a depth of several inches, thus closing an unprecedented March for our valley. Not a bud nor a sign of a leaf is to be seen. Farmers are very backward with their work.

NORFOLK, Va., March 31.—Snow fell for several hours today, followed by a northeastern gale and rain storm. The telephone lines of the life-saving service along the coast are broken down in many places by the storm.

RICHMOND, Va., March 31.—Snow fell here today, but did not attain much depth, owing to the warmth of the earth.

Stonewall Items.

Haywood Lewis has another fine boy added to his fireside.

Schooner Laura Wolf, Houston master, is now at our wharf loading lumber for Philadelphia.

Mrs. Susan Linton, aged about 70 years, died of pneumonia a few days since, at the residence of her son, Charles Swan.

There is a widower in our town (who clerks for one of our most successful merchants) who has got so absent-minded that he puts up a package of snuff and shoves it in the money drawer and hands the money to the customer before he discovers the mistake. Rather a bad condition to be in. Well, I presume there is a chance for him to be cured.

I should like for the editors and correspondents of those newspapers who are continually telling the farmers not to use commercial fertilizers and how to farm, to subscribe for the Constitution, Atlanta, Ga., and read the farm page edited by Dr. W. L. Jones—as good, if not the best authority on farming in the South—and perhaps they would be induced to hold their advice, or at least let up a little. [Several of our correspondents are practical farmers, and while they may not be as learned as Dr. Jones they are generally pratical and display good sense in their suggestions.—ED.]

"When headache joins neuralgia, then comes the tug of war." A wise general knows very well how to marshall his forces. His first, last, and best charge is made with a bottle of Salvation Oil, and the doughty foe lies cringing in the dust.

A Movement Against Secret Societies.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The Congress of Churches and Christians commenced its session here today, its object being the inauguration of a movement to crush out secret societies. About 800 delegates, mostly men beyond middle age, were present from several States. Today the stage of the theatre where the congress is in session is set with a scene representing the interior of a lodge. Prof. H. H. George, of Geneva College, was elected president, after prayer and the singing of hymns. Mr. Pritchard and Prof. George, both made short speeches, and were followed by the Hon. Hallack Floyd, of Ohio. Mr. Floyd denounced secret societies as inimical to American institutions. He said it was time for the press to take off the muzzle and speak out against Masonry and all secret societies. E. D. Bailey, of Washington Heights, followed with another address.

Ex-Governor Hubbard Says

AUSTIN, TEXAS, March 3, 1882.

Mr. A. K. Hawkes: Dear Sir—I am much pleased with the pantiscopic glasses you so perfectly adapted to my eyes; with them I am enabled to read, as in my youth, the finest print with the greatest ease. I cheerfully recommend them to the public. Respectfully,

R. B. HUBBARD,
(Ex-Gov. of Texas) Minister to Japan.

Little Hope of Reconciliation.

LONDON, March 30.—Lord Hartington delivered a speech at the inaugural dinner of the liberal union this evening. He said that the effect of Mr. Gladstone's open espousal of the action of the Parnellites during the present session was to divorce still further the opposing elements of the liberal party. The Round Table conference had broken down. The unionists were determined to do nothing to turn out the government as long as they maintained the law.

Mr. Morley, addressed the Liberal-Radical Union on the Irish crimes bill tonight, said that the provision for change of venue of trials was a grotesque and malignant proposal. He said the liberals pledged themselves to make every effort to undo the mischief and injustice that would result if the bill should pass.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
