BRITISH REPUBLICANS.

The Republican papers have been ringing the charges on "Democratic alliance with Great Britain," "Democratic opposition to the American industries," and "congressional legislation in favor of England."

Unable to see anything in the conduct of the Democracy to warrant such a line of attack, we have been watching the Republican meal tub to see the cat jump. Senator Gorman popped his long whip in the Senate the other day, and out jumped the cat. It was a devilish black cat with English side whiskers, and wore a gold necklace, engraved with the name of Levi P. Morton.

The distinguished Senator from Maryland brought out the fact that Levi P. Morton is one of the directors of the Canadian Pacific Road. "That corporation is in receipt of a very large subsidy from the British Government, and is monopolizing a great part of our commerce with China and Japan, including the transportation of Chinese immigrants to the United States, who are arriving at a rate estimated by the California Senators as high as 4,000 per month. This Great Britain corporation is acquiring a foot hold in the United States by buying connecting roads through Maine and Vermont, and under the provisions of the law of 1871, it avoids all toll to our Government by taking advantage of the system of transporting bonded goods free of tax.

Now, isn't here a nice kettle of fish? Harrison advocating the admission of Chinese, and Morton actually bringing them here on his railroad! Senator Edmunds attempted an apology for Morton, but instead of prizing Morton out of the mud he got himself into the mire. It was shown that Edmunds is the paid attorney of the road. There now!

But it is said that Morton has resigned as director of the road. Shall this exonerate him? A man is the receiver of stolen goods. Shall he be excused because he offers to give up the goods after the theft has been detected? Not at all. Such is not the law of the land. But what if he has resigned from the board of directors, he is still a stockholder, with untold thousands of dollars invested in the road? Gradually but certainly light is dawning. Republican Senators are opposing the fisheries treaty. Edmunds leads the opposition. Is that opposition in the interest of Morton's railroad of which Edmunds is attorney?

The Tribune asks why should the Democratic National Committee trouble itself about documents when the Cobden Club will furnish all the campaign literature needed, and the New York Star replies:

It would certainly have saved a good deal of money to have appropriate campaign matter furnished ready made. In fact, much of it has been furnished from British headquarters already, but it has been sent to the Republicans and distributed by them. It is they who are trying to run the American campaign on the British basis, by the aid of imported literature. It was a little puzzling at first to see just how this came about, but the revelation of Mr. Morton's directorship in the Canadian Pacific, which is simply a British Government road, taken in connection with the declarations of English papers like the Leeds Mercury that Harrison should be elected in order to vindicate "the hereditary principle in American Government" explains why the Republican campaign managers are conducting their canvass on an English rather than on an American basis.

RECIPROCITY THE SOLUTION OF THE LABOR PROBLEM.

Before a remedy can be found, the evil must be understood. What is the Labor Problem, and what the remedy?

Labor is a divine command. Labor is honorable, but labor is punishment. "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread," followed man's first disobedience and forfeiture of Paradise. Man must labor. It is the inexorable demand of an inflexible law.

The relation of capital to labor is one of the vexed questions of the day. It is the Labor Problem, and is the offspring of selfishness. It is very largely a conflict of the selfishness of corporations and manufacturers, with the selfishness of operatives and laborers. The owners of railroads, factories, and shops wish to get as much work out of the men, for as little pay, as possible, so as to secure the largest profits, while the men wish to get as much for as little work as possible, so as to secure the largest gain in money to themselves. It is the selfishness of capital against the selfishness of labor. Selfishness opposes selfishness. The working men combine. Then come strikes on one hand and lockouts on the other. Suspension of business and financial ruin here, want and wastefulness yonder. This is the evil. Reciprocity is the remedy.

"Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's "Whatsoever, you would have men do unto you, do ye also unto them." Bear ye one another's burdens." When the divine law is made the rule of human business; when employer and the employed, capital and labor, come up to this heaven given Standard, we will hear no more of strikes but the rich and the poor will meet in one great brotherhood before one common Father of all.

The rich are burdened in ways of which the poor never dream; and the poor have sorrows that never enter the palaces of the rich. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and the labor problem is solved.

Let justice be done though the heavens fall, and the anvil will ring with joyous music: the spindle and the loom will join the anthem that swells from loving and rejoicing hearts, and capital and labor go hand in hand, building up the waste places of earth, and making a highway for the Lord of Hosts and King of Glory.

Commissioners Proceedings.

The board of commissioners of Craven county convened at the court house on Monday, Aug. 6th, 1888. Present: Wm. G. Brinson, S. W. Latham, Thos. H. Mallison and W. M. Watson.

On motion Commissioner Brinson was elected chairman pro tem.

The jury summoned and appointed by the sheriff on the petition of Rasberry Nelson and others filed May, 1887, in regard to laying out a public road in No. 1 township, submitted a report which was approved and confirmed and the road declared a public road, and the clerk ordered to notify the supervisors of No. 1 township of the action of the board.

Commissioner Brinson reported that in obedience to the order of the board at the July meeting he had examined the county records and finds that the board of trustees of the New Berne Academy had leased to Mrs. Mary J. Lane the lot on the southwest corner of the court house lot, for a term of thirty years beginning on the 1st day of October 1868 at an annual rental of $36.00.

Mrs. Virginia Harrison was allowed one dollar and fifty cents per month for the support of Mrs. Louisa Paul, until further ordered.

It was ordered that Jobey Carter be allowed two dollars Per month his support, he having consented to leave the poor house.

Jabin Jasper was allowed one dollar per month for the support of Patsy Shepard, she having consented to leave the poor house.

The application of Rose Armistead; col, was referred to Commissioner Watson with power to act.

On the petition of E. F. May and the citizens of No. 9 township, the voting precinct of Brock's store was changed to Jasper and due notice ordered to be given of said change.

M. DeW. Stevenson, attorney for S. H. Gray M'f'g Co., appeared before the board and asked the suspension of the collection of the fence tax charged to said company in No. 7 township for the year 1887, and that the board enter into a mutual agreement to have the liability of said Company for the payment of said fence tax decided by the courts. The application was refused.

The poll tax charged to Albert Hicks of No. 9 township for 1887 was remitted.

The application of M. M. Williams to rent the poor house farm on January next was referred to Commissioner Watson to examine and report at next meeting of board.

Mrs. Sinia Dunn was allowed one dollar and fifty cents per month for her support until further ordered.

Henry Jeffreys, col., of No. 3 township was relieved from payment of poll tax on account of poverty and infirmity.

Adjourned to Tuesday 10 o'clock.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Board convened at 10 a. m. Present: Jas. A. Bryan, W. G. Brinson, W. M. Watson and S. W. Latham.

A petition signed by Addison P. Whitford and others praying the board to lay out a public road in No. 2 township was filed with the board and the clerk ordered to give notice of same as required by law.

The valuation of 215 acres of land in No. 1 township listed by J. A. Askin was, upon the testimony of J. A. Ernul, F. S. Ernul and W. H. Chase, reduced from $1,300 to $800. Upon the same testimony 240 acres listed by A. Cohn for Sarah Cohn in the same township was increased from $700 to $1,000, also 300 acres listed by Farney Jackson was increased from $500 to $800.

Sheriff Stimson submitted his monthly report shing:

By paid Isaac Patterson, county treasurer, interest fund	1000.00
By balance	346.64
Total	$1417.51

The report was approved.

The application of D. Congdon for a remittance of the tax assessed against him on the steamer "Tiger Lily" was, after due consideration, refused and the sheriff ordered to collect said tax.

The tax assessed against J. H. Mills on one hundred acres of land listed by him in No. 1 township for the year 1887 and valued at $420 was remitted, the said land having been regularly listed by T. H. Van Eberstein and taxes paid by him.

Commissioner Latham was appointed a committee of one with authority to examine the records of the commissioners and ascertain if all public roads laid out in the county during the last five or six years have been duly laid out by a jury according to law and to report the result of his investigation to the board at its next meeting in September 1888.

Mr. H. H. Perry, registrar of No. 7 township, James City precinct, having stated that he delivered the registration book of said township for the election of 1886 to Joseph Nelson, register of deeds, and it appearing that said books were not in the office of the Register of Deeds at the expiration of said Nelson's term of office, it is ordered that the clerk of the board ascertain from Mr. Nelson what disposition was made of said books and report to the next meeting of board.

The monthly allowance of $2.00 per month heretofore made for Mrs. Wesley Gray was discontinued, she having died.

The chairman having announced that he would necessarily be absent from the city, on motion Commissioner Watson was elected chairman pro tem during his absence.

The monthly bills were examined and allowed and the board adjourned.
