THE GREENSBORO DAILY WORKMAN

DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY.

W. S. ROBERSON.

ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE IN GREENSBORO AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.]

ATTENTION.

The Central Democratic Club is called to meet at the Court House to-night at seven o'clock and all other Democratic organizations are invited to meet with us. The ladies are cordially invited.

JAMES W. FORBES, Pres.

The Chronicle gives the following summary of the make up of the next Legislature. In the House there will be:

Democrats	93
Republicans	11
People's party	12
In doubt	4
Total,	120

In the Senate:

Democrats	44
In Doubt	3
People's Party	2
Republicans	1
Total,	50

THE LADY TRAPPED.

"Yes," said the society lady at a swell affair the other evening, "I've crossed the Atlantic ocean eleven times."

The smart young man adjusted his eyeglass and said, "Ah! Born in America, I suppose?"

"No, indeed! Why do you ask?"

"Because if you were born in this country and had crossed the ocean eleven times you'd be on the other side now, dontcherknow!"

The lady figured a moment on the tips of her pretty fingers, blushed violently and fled.—London Tit-Bits.

It would have done Cleveland' good old soul good to see how the boys of Greensboro celebrated his victory.

The "kids" took about as much interest in the celebration as the men, and made about twice as much noise.

What difference does it make if the boys do feel a little tough today. They have yelled their best in a good cause.

If there are ten men in the band, ten women are told by their husbands that night that their playing alone saved the band from failure.—Atchison Globe.

A Dakota clergyman advertises that he will answer religious doubts at a dollar a doubt. Salvation was free once, but perhaps there is some sort of a McKinley tariff on it now.

A war is eminent between Peru and the Argentine Republic on the one side and Chili on the other.

The result in Ohio is still in doubt. It will take an official count to decide. It is still thought that the Democrats will win by a small majority.

THE VALUE OF CONSTANCY.

The constant drop of water
Wears away the hardest stone;
The constant gnaw of Towser
Masticates the toughest bone;
The constant cooing lover
Carries off the blushing maid;
And the constant advertiser
Is the one who gets the trade.

NOT AFRAID OF THE DEVIL.

Durham Sun.

A Durham man, who deals in meats etc., after trying in vain to collect some money a colored man was owing him, he and a friend put their heads together to get it. About midnight they called at the darkey's house, and he was awakened by a rap on the door.

"Who's dar?" he called out.

"The Devil!" solemnly replied the meat man.

"You is, hey?"

"Yes. I want you."

"What fur?"

"You refuse to pay your meat bill and I am sent to take you to the bottomless pit."

"You is?"

"I am! Come forth at once!"

Ize comin'," replied the negro as he jumped out of bed; "I can't pay dat bill half as easy in any oder way, and de old woman is so mighty cross Ize glad to get away from home."

The meat man and his friend didn't wait for the negro to come out.
