PAINLESS PATCH--An inch-square piece of glass, covered by a special tape on the patient's forearm, is used as a "skin window" to help physicians tell whether a patient has tuber_ culosis of TB-mimicking sarcoidosis. The technique may be useful in a variety of other diseases.

Members Of Boy's Camp Speak To Lions

Colonel Vidol and his boys from the Boy's Camp gave an interesting program at the Lions Club meeting Thursday night.

The boys sang the national anthem of their various Latin American countries and expressed a very favorable impression of the American people; especially the fine hospitality they have received in Burnsville.

The Lions provided a birthday cake and sang "Happy Birthday" for the Colonel.

Lion President Arney Fox announced that the Youth committee would handle the International Essay Contest on Peace. Members of this committee are D. G. McClure; Dr. J. C. Cornwell and Harry Hayter. Schools and individuals interested in participating in this contest should contact this committee. Local; district; state and international prizes will be awarded.

Contest Judging Held Wednesday

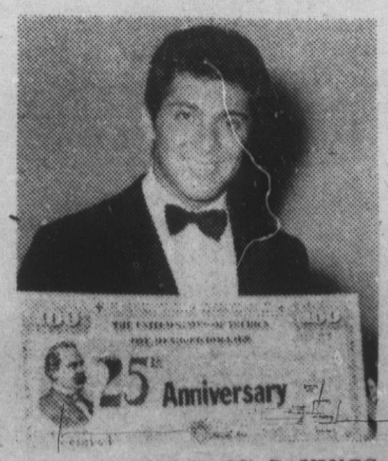
The Roadside Improvement Contest judging was held Wednesday afternoon. Entries judged were Micaville and Rocky Springs. The county winner will be entered in the WNC District Contest.

Judges for the county contest were Dr. Paul Fall; Mayor R. K. Helmle; and Mrs. E. L. Briggs.

This is a special part of the over-all Community Development Program sponsored by the Extension service in cooperation with the Asheville Community Development Commission and the other agricultural agenncies.



SINGS A SONG OF SAVINGS

Vocalist Paul Anka was born in 1941, the same year as the United States Savings Bond Program. Both are going strong and Paul goes along with the idea that "The world of tomorrow is worth saving for—with United States Savings Bonds".

Scott Will Speak At Democrat Meeting

Lt. Gov. Robert Scott will be the principal speaker at an important gathering of Democrats at Cane River High School Saturday night.

The meeting will be the first of its kind in Yancey County since she joined hands with neighboring counties in the newly formed legislative districts.

A large number of out of county Democrat candidates and leaders are expected ao attend the meeting. Not only were invitations sent out to senate and house candidates running in the new districts, but to practically all county candidates and officers in the county involved.

County leaders have made an effort to see that all sister county leaders attend the fund-raising dinner meeting. And many major issues will be discussed.

Not only will there be good speaking and eating, but Poone Brothers Band will furnish entertainment.

Yancey's own Judge William E. Anglin will introduce Lt. Gov. Scott.

Lt. Gov. Scott is expected to arrive in Burnsville around 1 p. m. and will be available for the remainder of the afternoon to answer questions and discuss issues with thoe interested in the affairs of North Carolina.

The dinner will begin at 5 p. m. with $5 plates for adults and $2.50 for children

Tickets have been on sale several days and are still available.

Plans for the dinner meeting were made by committees consisting of Charles Edwards, Wintz McIntosh, Hubert Justice; Tom Edge; James Fox; Boyd Laws; E. D. Wilson and T. A. Buchanan.

A.S.C.S. Comm. Elections In Sept.

The real key to the success of all ASCS programs is the farmer committee system . These committeemen are responsible for the administration of farm programs on a county and community basis.

North Carolina farmers will be voting on these committeemen in early September. Ballots will be mailed to all eligible voters by August 30 1966. There mnst bt returned to the Yancey ASCS office or postmarked by September 9. Any person that is eligible to vote and fails to get a ballot should notify their local ASCS office.

These committee elections are very important. We urge all eligible voters to be sure and vote for the best qualified persons on the ballot. Committeemen elected will take office on October 1 and serve through September 30, 1967.

Fender Promoted To S. Sgt.

Btry 5th Mal Bn 1st Arty: Dexhiem, Germany. On the 17th of August Sp. 5 Garry Fender was summoned to his battery Commander's office Not knowing what was up he reported to his commander with a worried mind, but when he left that office he was a happy man. During his brief visit he had been promoted from Sp5 (E-5) to Staff Sargent (E-6).

Sgt. Fender is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fender of Route 2, Burnsville. His wife, Sandra, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen of Burnsville, and daughter Marcia are serving a three year tour with him in Germany.

If Sgt. Fender's present promotion rate should keep up he will be a Sergeant Major within the next year and a half. He has received six promotions during his three years and two months of active duty — this being an average of one promotion every six months. During the past 13 months he has gone from Pfc. (E-3) to Staff Sargent (E-6), one of the fastest promotion rates known.

Just prior to this promotion Sgt. Fender was awarded the Good Conduct Award of the Army.

Sgt. Fender will be returning to the States sometime this coming spring.
