Students on CCC Dean's List

Eleven Kings Mountain students and three Grover students are listed on the Dean's List for the Spring Quarter at Cleveland Community College.

They are Larry Patterson, Melita Purvis, and Anthony Wayne Scruggs, all of Grover; and Robin Bailey, Linda Beach, Teresa Jackson, Jewell Hendrick, Kellie Maples, Linda Norris, Jeffrey Patterson, Sisouvanh Phanthalack, Lori Plyler, Susan Repko, and Crystal Stewart, all of Kings Mountain.

■Kimberly Scism of Kings Mountain was among 22 Wingate College students initiated recently into the Alpha Beta Gamma chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, an international English honor society.

A junior history major and daughter of Gene and Eleanor Scism of Oak Grove Road, she is also a member of Phi Eta Sigma freshman honor society, Wingate Gold, the History Club, a participant in intramural sports, and will serve as the vice president of the 1992-93 senior class. She spent the fall of 1990 semester studying abroad in the Wingate-In-London World awareness program.

Sigma Tau Delta honors English majors, minors, and students who meet the requirements of junior level and are in the upper 35 percent of the class.

■ It isn't too late to register for a graduate course at Gardner-Webb College this summer. Enroll in one for work towards a master's degree, to earn 4.5 renewal credits per three semester hours, or for pure enjoyment.

The following courses begin on campus June 29: CEDU 650, Legal and Ethical Issues in Counseling; EDUC 550A, Language Arts and Children's Literature; EDUC 621A, Researching English Education; PHED 500A, Current Trends in Elementary Physical Education; and PSYC 600A, Educational Psychology.

Call the Graduate Office, 434-2361, extension 261, for more information.

■ Thirty-nine nurses won the "In search of Excellence" awards recently at Gaston Memorial Hospital.

They were Beth Abernathy, Susan Allen, Frances Billings, Dorothy Black, Sandra Brazzle, Diane Burrell, Patricia Capps, Pamela Cloninger, Fae Coleman, Karen Crowder, Diane Davis, Debbie Day Debra Ellis, Patricia Gray, Bill Hansen, Donna Harris, Diane Haymore, Bernice Hogan, Mary Hovis, Doris Jackson, Katie Lindsay, Sabrina Messer, Kay Mitchell, Susan Murphy, Rhonda Poole, Cynthia Robinson, Carolyn Rollins, Rebecca Shadd, Betty Short, Betty Smith, Teresa Stines, Susan Spry, Betty Stathis, Shayne Turner, Cathryn Varalli, Jane Wiggins, Lisa Wilbanks, Brenda Williams, and Jackine Woody.

■ Two Kings Mountain students--Mary King and Cynthia Skinner--were among the 39 students who received diplomas from Southern College of Gastonia in commencement exercises Friday at First United Methodist Church in Gastonia. King graduated with honors.

■ Kimberly Collins Butler, wife of Ricky Butler, is listed on the President's List for the recent semester at Gaston College, where she is a rising sophomore.

■ The following Kings Mountain residents received degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill: Heather Lynn Benedict, A.B. in education; Keh-fang Checn, masters in public health; James Howard Holsenbeck, B.A. in economics; April Annette Hoyle, M.A. in journalism; Sharon Dilling Leach, B.S. in pharmacy; Timothy Keith Moore, B.A. in political science; and Jennifer Holmes Reid, B.A. in english.

Linda Rene Hambright, B.A. in radio, tv and motion pictures; Tricia D. Martin, B.A. in speech; and Gina Renee Vess, B.A. in speech, all from Grover, also received degrees from the university.
