CAJE Teacher Workshops Reach Shalom Park Teachers

This fall, teachers from all the Shalom Park religious schools interested in enhancing their professional expertise participated in CAJE teacher in-service workshops.

On Wednesday, afternoon Sept. 13, teachers from the Charlotte Jewish Preschool and the Jewish Preschool on Sardis learned together with Dr. Lisa Taub, Ph.D., a local clinical psychologist in private practice, at a session entitled Fostering Teamwork - A Positive Approach to Behavior Management in the Preschool Classroom.

On Wednesday, Sept. 27, our community's Shalom Park middle school & high school teachers studied with Dr. Marla Chalnick, Ph.D., a medical psychotherapist in private practice in Charlotte, during a session entitled Teens & Trust: Building Bridges in Jewish Education.

And then on Sunday, November 5, the teachers of the kindergarten through seventh grades from Temple Beth El and Temple Israel Religious Schools joined together for a day devoted to studying "Jerusalem 3000: Teaching Israel."

It was a particularly poignant day, the workshop occurring less than 24 hours following the tragic assassination of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin in Tel Aviv, the previous

Your Students Involved", "Israel Resources at You Fingertips", & "Make the History of Israel & Jerusalem Come To Life Through Re-enactments, Simulations & Historical Drama."

The workshop presenters included: Rabbi Jim Bennett; Rabbi Murray Ezring; Cantor Linda Shepard; Cantor Elias Roohvarg; Dr. Richard Cohen from UNCC, the Dept. of Religious Studies; Roz Cooper, Sam Eneman, Richard A. Klein & Lenora Stein.

CAJE will be offering other professional development programs for teachers of our Jewish schools in the coming weeks and months:

Tuesday, November 14, "Talmud With Training Wheels with Shalom Park Principals Council Scholar-in-Residence, Joel Lurie Grishaver.

Sunday, January 21, 1996, "Hands On Holidays - A Make it & Take It Workshop" with Madeline Rothbard, Early Childhood Director of the Epstein Day School, Atlanta, Ga.
