

CHS Plans Special Winter Programs

By Sue Brodsky, Director

"Tikun Olam HaYeladim" (Repairing the Children's World) will be the theme of the Consolidated High School of Jewish Studies eighth and ninth grade retreat. The retreat, which is co-sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte, will be held January 27-28, 1996. All students will be asked to bring toiletry items to make Hygiene Packs, which will be donated to A Child's Place, a school for homeless children. Other highlights of the week-end will be a performance by "Heart to Heart", a teen theatre group sponsored by the Battered Women's Shelter. The performance will focus on dating violence, and two of our CHS students, Jennifer Wismuller and Bryan Crossan, are members of the cast. On Sunday afternoon, students will go out into the community to volunteer their services at various locations, all of which serve children in Charlotte. Some of the agencies students will assist are: Alexander Children's Home, Charlotte Emergency Housing, Florence Crittendon Home, and A Child's Place. Approximately 90 eighth and ninth graders are expected to participate in the retreat, which will be held at Temple Israel and Temple Beth El.

Two other special events are being planned for February. On February 7, 1996, all students will go to The Children's Theatre to see a special performance of "The Diary of Anne Frank". A discussion led by Rabbi Bennett and Rabbi Ezring will follow. Also in February, students and parents will have the opportunity to participate in "Teen Israel", a program to inform parents and high school students about Israel's experiences available for the summer of 1996. Co-sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte, the program on February 28, 1996, will be enhanced by informal talks with CHS students who participated in Israel summer programs during the summer of 1995. For more information about any of our programs, please contact the CHS office, 366-5007, ext.261.
