Men's Club News

Yellow Candle Program

In late April all congregation members received a special Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle to be lit on the evening of Monday, May 1, 27 Nissan, 5760, in memory of those who lost their lives in the Holocaust.

Each year the Vav Class and the Temple Israel Men's Club combine efforts in remembering the six million Jews. The incoming B'nai Mitzvah class, as part of their Jewish education program, participate in a month long Holocaust study project which includes each student interviewing either a death camp survivor or someone who lived during this time.

The students culminate their experience by joining the Men's Club in a youth Mission to Washington, D.C. where they spend a full afternoon learning first hand about the Holocaust at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum.

Your donations as part of the Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle Program help to make the Youth Mission possible. For those who have already given, many thanks. For those who are yet to give, please help us ensure the message of freedom and tolerance gets passed to another generation.

During the weekend of March 1st, the students assisted the Men's Club in preparing the 800 Yellow candles for mailing. ☆

Judith Hauptmann, Temple Israel Scholar-in-Residence, May 5-7, 2000

"The Talmud as a Resource for Jewish Life Today"

Please join Judith Hauptmann, the Rabbi Philip R. Alstat Professor of Talmud at the Jewish Theological Seminary, to share her knowledge and expertise all weekend long, May 5, 6, and 7, 2000 at Temple Israel.

Her weekend talks will be on the subject "The Talmud as a Resource for Jewish Life Today: Parents, Pluralism and Parity for Women."

Friday night the evening will begin with a Shabbat service and family dinner. Dr. Hauptmann will then lecture, beginning at 8:00 PM, on "Unresolved Tension: Women in Jewish Law." Contact Terri Cathcart at 362-2796 regarding the family dinner.

Saturday morning, Dr.

Hauptmann will deliver the sermon during regular Shabbat services. Her subject is "Parents' Mitzvot to Children and Children's Mitzvot to Parents: Blueprints for Family Life." After a Kiddush luncheon, there will be open study and discussion with Dr. Hauptmann in the Chapel.

On Sunday morning, May 7, following a 9:00 AM morning minyan and a bagel breakfast, Dr. Hauptmann will deliver a final lecture, "Acknowledging the Legitimacy of the Views of Others: A Talmudic Perspective."

Please join us for an interesting and unique weekend with a wonderful and fascinating guest. ☆
