Adult Education Committee

In conjunction with the Jewish Community Cultural Arts Festival, Temple Israel's Adult Education Committee is very excited to announce their 2001-2002 kick off program. They have arranged for a fun-filled evening of laughter by bringing in nationally known comedian, Jerry Farber on Thursday evening, November 8 at 8:00 PM. Jerry Farber is one of Atlanta's most recognized and acclaimed performers. His style is inspired by both jazz and comedy greats from Dave Brubeck and Errol Garner to Woody Allen and Mark Russell. Jerry has a best-selling book entitled, Sex, Wealth and Power: How to Live Without Them.

In addition, on Thursday evening, January 17, 2002 at 8:00 PM, Temple Israel's Adult Education Committee will have Dr. Sanford Benjamin present a discussion on Jewish Genetic Diseases. Please mark your calendars and watch your mail and later newspaper issues for more details. The programs are free and open to the entire community.

Gorelick Family Lecture: On Wednesday, November 14 at 7:45 PM, the Gorelick Family and Temple Israel, in conjunction with the Jewish Community Cultural Arts Festival will present Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson. Rabbi Artson is the Dean of the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies at the University of Judaism in Los Angeles. He is the author of Love

Peace and Pursue Peace: A Jewish Response to War and Nuclear Annihilation. He now writes "Today's Torah," a weekly Torah commentary with almost 8,000 internet subscribers. He came from a very liberal San Francisco family, including marching for Eugene McCarthy. He was president of the Democratic Club at Harvard University and he interned with Senator Alan Cranston. Temple Israel wishes to thank the Gorelick Families for their vision and generosity in providing through Temple Israel, this wonderful program. The Temple, Jewish community and community at large are indeed grateful. ☆

Men's Club News

Temple Israel's Men's Club Inaugural Flea Market will be Sunday, November 18, 2001 at Temple Israel. Table set-up: 7:00 AM-8:30 AM. Doors open at 9:00 AM and will remain open until 4:00 PM. Eight-foot table space is $25.00. Both professional and "one time only" vendors invited. This is a great opportunity for cosmetics, Tupperware, salesman's samples, jewelry crafts, giftware, etc., as well as any "prizes and surprises" you have in your garage or attic. (No food items, please.) Door-prizes throughout the day.

For table reservation, please call Marc Titlebaum at 704-846-6230. ☆

Sisterhood Luncheon

Another great Sisterhood program in the works for you. If you attended the Paid-up Membership Luncheon, you've already discovered what a talented, dynamic and warm group of women make up "The Hood." If you missed the fantastic September 30 program, there's still an opportunity for you to be involved with your Sisterhood. Join us on Wednesday, November 14, at 10:30 AM sharp at the Temple for a delightful luncheon as we celebrate Sisterhood's support of the Jewish Theological Seminary and our continued commitment to mitzvot. "Talmud Torah — The Study of Torah and Tikkun Olam: Fixing the World One Mitzvot At a Time." Watch your mail for your invitation and kindly note the deadline for reservations. No reservations will be accepted after the cut-off date, nor will walk-ins be admitted. We greatly appreciate your cooperation in this area. Your Programming Committee works extremely hard to provide quality programming, we need to adhere to our deadlines in order to ensure ample seating and food for those who attend. Join us on November 14 and bring a Sisterhood buddy with you. ☆

Rabbis Ezring and Kasman teach the children of the Charlotte Jewish Preschool all about the holiday of Sukkot when they visit the Sukkah at Temple Israel.
