Bring Your Undiscovered Treasure to Charlotte's First Judaica Roadshow

Experts will evaluate items like this silver kiddush cup made in the USA during the 1950s from the Arthur M. Feldman Gallery. Can you guess its value? Answer on page 26.

Please join the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte Women's Division as they host Charlotte's first Judaica Roadshow on Thursday, March 14, 2002 at the home of Patty Gorelick. Inspired by the PBS Television series, community members will have the opportunity to share their cherished personal items that maybe worthless or priceless.

Co-Chairs, Gail Baron and Dana Ditesheim are very excited to have Arthur Feldman as the appraiser for the event. Mr. Feldman has been the owner of the Arthur M. Feldman Gallery in Chicago for 14 years. The gallery features antiques, fine art and specializes in Judaica. Mr. Feldman was formerly director of the Spertus Museum of Judaica, served as vice president of Spertus

College and has held many prominent museum posts, including ones at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC and the Victoria and Albert Museum in London. He will be happy to use his expertise to appraise your family treasures. So start searching your attic for those valued objects.

For more information on this exciting event, please call Marnie Moskowitz, Director of Program Development, in the Federation office at 704-944-6764 or email her at mmoskowitz@shalomcharlotte.org. ☆

The Jewish Holidays Will Never be the Same

On December 18, the Women's Division of the Jewish Federation welcomed Rita Milos Brownstein, the "Jewish Martha Stewart." Together 45 women created tzedakah boxes and kiddush cups for making their holidays more memorable. Rita shared with us her wonderful book, Jewish

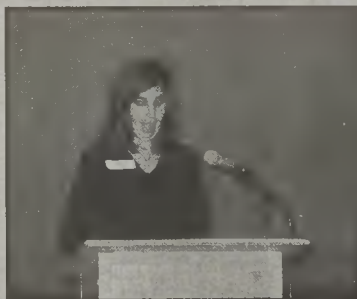

Holiday Style, which is packed with dazzling and inspiring ideas for all the holidays. Our taste buds were delighted by appetizers and desserts prepared by some of our guests. Special thanks to our event chair, Suzy Catenazzo. "May your holidays be rich in spirit and beauty."

Alison Lerner speaks to those gathered.
