

Applications Due for Young Adult Mission to Israel

Are you between the ages of 23 and 45? Are you interested in a way to strengthen and enrich worldwide Jewry, while deepening your personal commitment to leading a valuable, meaningful life? Join us and connect with your Jewish heritage. Come to Israel. The Jewish Federation mission will depart Charlotte on February 19 and return on February 27, 2006. The cost of the mission is $1500 (minimum gift of $365 to the 2006 Annual Campaign).

Trip includes: seven nights' accommodation: one night Tel Aviv, one night Hadera and one night Galilee, four nights Jerusalem, breakfast daily, two lunches, six dinners, all site entrances, transfers and assistance to and from the airport, touring in a luxury air conditioned bus with a licensed tour guide.

The Kotel (Western Wall)

For more information, please contact Marnie Moskowitz in the Federation office at 704-944-6764 or email marnie.moskowitz@jewishcharlotte.org. ☆

Uptowners Welcomes Peter Lehmueller of Johnson & Wales

Uptowners is an arm of the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte designed to involve members of the business and professional community. Please join us on Wednesday, November 9 at 12 noon (preordered box lunch available for purchase) at the Levine Museum of the New South, 200 East 7th Street. Last month we discussed the future of print media with Charlotte Observer editor, Rick Thames. This month we will learn more about Johnson & Wales University from the Dean of Culinary Education, Peter Lehmueller.

For more information or to register for this event please contact

Marnie Moskowitz in the Federation office at 704-944-6764 or by email marnie.moskowitz@jewishcharlotte.org. ☆
