

Looking for a Special Gift for a Special Person?

Contribute to the Judaic Library's Book Fund

Here is the perfect gift for a special person's special occasion. Donate to the Library's Book Fund and a beautiful bookplate will be placed in a new book, DVD, or CD, recognizing the honoree, the occasion, and the donor. The entire community will benefit from your generosity.

Please call the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center at 704-944-6783 to donate. ☆

Temple Beth El - Your Home Away from Home Now Includes Meals

Beginning in January, Temple Beth El will offer Wednesday night dinners at 6 PM on the evenings that Hebrew School is in session. These meals are an informal, nutritious, and family friendly alternative to "fast food," and they are prepared by our wonderful Temple Food and Beverage Director, Lori Pearson.

So, if the rush of a hectic Wednesday night makes it impossible to feed your family a hot meal, or you need to eat between Hebrew School and Hebrew High, or you're a teacher in the schools, or you attend any of the education programs offered at Temple Beth El on Wednesday nights, dinner in the David Silverman Social Hall is the perfect way to have a delicious, easy meal with great company.

Let Temple Beth El be your stove away from stove.

January 10 – Baked Ziti, Caesar Salad, Dessert and Beverage

January 31 – Brisket, Potatoes, Veggies, Salad, Dessert and Beverage

February 7 – Baked Potato Bar, Salad, Dessert and Beverage

February 14 – Baked Salmon, Pasta w/Veggies, Dessert and Beverage

February 28 – Soup and Salad, Bread, Dessert and Beverage

With a reservation, the cost is $8 for Adults and $6 for Children. Walk-ins add $2 per person.

Please make reservations by calling 704-944-6790 or email rspv@beth-el.com (Wednesday night dinner in subject line). Reservations must be made by 5 PM on the Monday prior to the dinner. ☆
