

Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte Allocates $2,816,801 to Help Jews in Charlotte, Israel and Worldwide

The Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte is a family. Even if we don't all know each other, we take care of each other. This is the Jewish way. We invest in our children. We demand justice for those who cannot advocate for themselves. We make certain our elderly have the best care possible. And when our fellow Jews are in crisis, we are there.

Serving as an umbrella for the Charlotte Jewish community, the Federation carefully examines local and overseas priority needs and allocates accordingly.

Because Federation giving touches so many lives, one gift is maximized to support many programs that ensure a strong vibrant Jewish community. Allocations decisions, while reflecting Jewish values, are a function of available resources, needs in the community, the expertise of a long-term relationship with Federation agencies and other partners. The allocations process is one of the primary functions the Federation fills in planning for the emerging and future needs of our community. Under the leadership of Daniel Levine and Judi Strause and their tireless committee, this year, we were able to allocate $2,816,801* to help build and maintain Jewish continuity, and to protect the interests of the Jewish people in Charlotte, in Israel and worldwide.

The largest portion of the money remains here in our local community where everyone from the smallest preschooler to the elderly, and everyone in between, directly experiences your gift to the Federation. The remaining 30% of donations goes to Israel and Overseas needs. Our Charlotte community is able to designate $201,000 to meet the specific needs of Jews in the former Soviet Union, Argentina and Israel as well as assist our Partnership community of Hadera-Eiron.

The Federation thanks board members, community leaders and all others who have solicited countless contributions and attended numerous events and meetings. Thank you to the Jewish community. Your values inspire us. Your strength empowers us. You are our family...giving to others, taking responsibility and acting with loving kindness. Thank you for living generously - It does a world of good. ☆
