Local Real Estate Agent Receives Awards for 2006

Steve Lepow, a Charlotte real estate broker with Re/Max Executive Realty was honored with two distinguished awards presented at the Re/Max Regional Awards Ceremony held at the Charlotte Convention Center on Saturday, February 3. Lepow was honored as one of the Re/Max top individual residential agents for both North Carolina and South Carolina, finishing at number four. In addition, Lepow received the prestigious Chairman's Club award, which is one of the highest single year honors that Re/Max bestows upon a Sales Associate.

Later this year, Lepow will be inducted into the Re/Max Hall of Fame, a career award from Re/Max International.

Lepow is proud of his accomplishments and thanked his network of clients, buyers and sellers. "I am fortunate that most of my business comes from referrals and want to thank everyone that has contributed to my success. I believe choosing a real estate agent is an important and personal decision. We have built our business by listening to our client's needs and by providing world class service." These awards place Lepow among the top professionals in the real estate industry.

Steve, his wife Linda, and children Alyssa and Matthew, are members of Temple Beth El. ☆

Temple Israel Youth Director Elected to National Position

In January, The Jewish Youth Director's Association (JYDA) held its annual conference at Ramah Darom in Clayton, Georgia. JYDA is the Organization for Conservative Jewish Youth Directors and Youth Group Advisors. Temple Israel's Youth Director, Jason Cathcart, was elected to a two-year term as the National President for JYDA. Jason previously served as treasurer for the organization. Jason is looking forward to raising the awareness to the Jewish community to the importance of this profession and the impact Jewish youth programming has on its participants. JYDA provides conventions and workshops that train Youth Directors and Advisors in group work skills, Judaic knowledge, child development, and developing creative and diverse programming. Congratulations to Jason on his new position. ☆

Tennis Champ Ranked #50 in State

Will Goldberg, 13, an 8th grader at South Charlotte Middle School, participated in the RCC Tennis Tournament in Gastonia, NC in January. Will, was the no. 1 seed in the Boys 14s division. He won his three matches leading up to the final, 6-0, 6-0, 6-1 6-0, 6-2 6-1. Due to inclement weather, the tournament had to cancel many of the finals on the last day of the tournament. Will is currently ranked #50 in the Boys 14s division of the NC-USTA rankings. This was Will's first tournament of the new year and first since he lost his friend Taylor Chitty in the new year's day plane crash in Charlotte that killed Taylor, his brother and his parents. Will and Taylor were friends and rivals on the tennis courts for four years. They also were doubles partners
