

Who's got the afikomen? The afikomen is just a little bit of matzah. It looks like any other piece. But at the seder, it's unique and indispensable. And no matter how tired we are, we can't end the seder without it.

To Jews in need all over the world, you are the afikomen, the essential piece. Without your help, so many Jews in our local community, in Israel, in the Former Soviet Union, and in 60 countries won't have the means to celebrate Passover. Make a gift to federation, and bring the world Jewish community to your seder table. Live Generously.[®] It does a world of good.
