New Talmud Torah at Ohr HaTorah to Begin This Fall

A new limited Talmud Torah will begin with the new school year at Congregation Ohr HaTorah. The Talmud Torah will meet every Sunday, and students will be able to learn limited Judaic studies. Talmud Torah is no substitute for a Jewish day school education, yet it does provide an opportunity for those children who have not had the benefit of attending a Jewish day school.

The Talmud Torah classes will be primarily for children in younger elementary grades. If you would like more information, please contact Brenda Waxman in the Ohr HaTorah office at 704-366-3984. ☆

Jewish Super Bowl Veteran to Speak in Charlotte

Alan Veingrad then.

Former Dallas Cowboys linebacker Allan Veingrad will be the guest speaker at Shalom Park on Sunday, August 26 and will discuss his life as a Jew in the NFL. A veteran of a Super Bowl game as a Dallas Cowboy, Alan also played for the Green Bay Packers before joining the Cowboys.

Alan is a member of a select group of people, as there are very few Jews in the NFL. He is very involved in the Jewish community in South Florida and lives a full Jewish life. Yet when he was in the NFL, he was the center of attention about the Jewish life, as he raised much curiosity among his fellow players such as Emmet Smith and others who were very interested in learning more about the Jewish people.

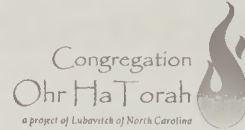

Alan Veingrad has a message to today's youth who might struggle to identify themselves as Jewish in a non-Jewish world. It is a message of Jewish pride and knowledge and the respect that comes with the pride. He has a wonderful sense of humor, and his presentation is funny, entertaining, and informative. He is a gracious speaker and welcomes questions from the audience.

Alan will be speaking at Lerner Hall in the Levine JCC on Sunday, August 26 at 7:00 PM. Admission is $15 per person. For more information please visit our website at www.ohratorahnc.org. ☆

Havurat Tikvah Invites Visitors for the Days of Awe 5768

A Reconstructionist Thought: While the Jewish people are the constant within the evolution of Jewish civilization, we are connected through our "common history, experience and destiny." We are linked together by our shared past, mutual present and shared future. As Reconstructionists, we gather in community, a people committed to facing together the challenge of making our Jewish heritage and traditions have meaning for the contemporary Jew.

July is past with the Tisha B'Av evening service July 23 and Zach Roth's Bar Mitzvah July 28. We look forward to the Days of Awe with our warm congregation-led services:

September 8 at 8 PM, we reflect and prepare for the Days of Awe during the month of Elul, culminating with the prayers of Selichot.

September 13 at 10 AM, we come together to embrace Rosh Hashanah Day One.

September 13 at 3 PM, we will gather for Tashlich (location TBD).

September 14 at 10 AM, we will observe Rosh Hashanah Day Two.

September 21 at 7 PM, we will start seating for our 7:15 PM Kol Nidre service.

September 22 at 10 AM, we unite for Yom Kippur, to be written for one more year in the Book of Life.

We look forward to reflecting on our lives at Selichot with our new student Rabbi, Arlene Berger, from the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College in Philadelphia. Arlene comes to us with a life of Jewish experience: from her Yeshiva days to her many volunteer hours in the community, her path has brought her to rabbinic training.

Havurat Tikvah has recently procured a refurbished sefer

Torah which will be dedicated by Rabbi Kevin Hale, the Torah sofer, at Simchat Torah, but more about Rabbi Hale and our "new" Torah next month.

Our services are warm and friendly, a family atmosphere in which all Jews can feel comfortable, and guests are always welcome.

Havurat Tikvah is an affiliate of the Jewish Reconstructionist Federation and we celebrate all services and many events in the Fellowship Hall of St Andrews Presbyterian Church, 2201 Springdale Ave. (at Magnolia) in the Dilworth neighborhood of Charlotte.

For an updated calendar and information for Havurat Tikvah, visit the HT website at www.HavuratTikvah.org or call 704-545-0894. ☆
