FEI Announces Sam Siegel 2007 Hall of Fame Inductee

Financial Executives International (FEI) announced that Sam Siegel, former Vice Chairman, CFO, Treasurer and Secretary of Nucor Corp. has been selected as an inductee for the 2007 class of the FEI Hall of Fame, which recognizes individuals who epitomize the performance, leadership and integrity of the most exemplary financial executives throughout their careers. Siegel will be honored, along with Thomas Jones, Vice Chairman of the International Accounting Standards Board, at a ceremony at the FEI Hall of Fame Gala Dinner on November 11 in New York City.

Siegel served nearly four decades at Nucor until his retirement in 1999, most recently as the company's vice chairman, CFO, treasurer and secretary. Siegel became controller of Nucor in 1964, and was largely attributed with reorganizing the company into what is now the largest steel producer in the United States. Well regarded by his peers for building a new financial management culture within Nucor, he was honored in a closing bell ceremony at the New York Stock Exchange in 1999.

Prior to joining Nucor, Siegel held positions with Touche Ross, Dellwood Dairy, Scaporcel Metals, Topps Chewing Gum and Swift & Co. He has been an FEI member since 1965 and has also had affiliations with the American Institute of CPAs and the American Society of Corporate Secretaries. He is also well known as a guest lecturer for a number of high level venues. ☆

WBT'S Jeff Katz Saluted in Congress

WBT-AM and WBT-FM afternoon talk show host Jeff Katz has been saluted on the floor of the U. S. House of Representatives for his strong efforts on behalf of law enforcement officers. Charlotte area Congressman Robin Hayes offered the tribute and has had it entered in to the official Congressional Record. The text is shown below:

"Mr. Speaker, last April, CMPD officers Sean Clark and Jeff Shelton were shot and killed in the line of duty as they responded to a call at an east Charlotte apartment complex. As a result of these tragic murders came the Blue Ribbon Campaign. Many miles of free blue ribbon were distributed throughout the greater Charlotte area. Jeff Katz, a former police officer who hosts the afternoon drive show on WBT-AM and WBT FM in Charlotte, NC urged listeners to display the Blue Ribbons on cars and homes as well as on their persons to visibly support law enforcement. On his radio show, Katz asked listeners to donate to a special memorial fund for the families of the slain officers. In a matter of hours, Katz had pledged of $50,000. Those making pledges were directed to make their donations directly to the fraternal order of police lodge #9.

"I want to commend those officers and their families for their sacrifice and thank their brothers and sisters in law enforcement for their commitment to keep the city safe. I also want to thank Jeff Katz for his tremendous efforts in the Blue Ribbon Campaign during this tragedy. Out of this tragedy it was encouraging to see the tremendous outpouring of support from the whole community for our law enforcement personnel who risk their lives everyday for all of us and I hope our communities across the nation will recognize and support their law enforcement personnel." ☆

Exciting!

Cheen to Lead Delegation to MIDEM

Jeff Cheen, President of Succession Records, and Bella Piccinini of Italian Eyes Music will be escorting a select group to the world's largest music convention, MIDEM. At this January 2008 convention, delegates from the recording, publishing, live concert, digital, mobile and branding sectors will gather in Cannes, France. MIDEM, now in its 42nd year, puts you in direct contact with nearly 10,000 music and technology professionals from more than 90 countries.

Mr. Cheen has worked with the likes of Deep Purple and Rick James, headed Mercury Records' Hollywood office, and headed up the rock A&R department of Capitol Records. He has also produced several high-profile acts and is knowledgeable in the art of shopping for a deal. Ms. Piccinini, like Mr. Cheen, has attended MIDEM over several years and has led delegations and completed transactions there with considerable success. She has placed songs in French commercials as well as television and film in the US. This team of West Coast power players now located in Charlotte, NC, will make all travel arrangements, set up appointments and guide you through an experience to take your career to the next level. Remember there is a whole world out there waiting to hear you. For more info call Mr. Cheen at 704-395-1002 x218. ☆

Camp Barney Medintz Sets Open House in Charlotte

Camp Barney Medintz, summer resident camp of the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, will present an exciting new musical slide production and dessert reception in Charlotte on Monday, November 12, at the Levine Jewish Community Center of Charlotte, beginning at 7 PM. Jim Mittenthal, Camp Director, will meet with new and returning families, answer questions pertaining to the 2008 summer camp season, and provide applications for registration.

Camp Barney Medintz is located in the North Georgia Blue Ridge mountains on over 500 wooded acres surrounding two lakes just 75 miles NE of Atlanta. According to Mr. Mittenthal, the setting facilitates "every imaginable activity," including water skiing, hydro-tubing, wake boarding, swimming, sailing, canoeing, the "Iceberg," the "Log Roll," leaping off the "Blob" or soaring down the 180-foot slides, horseback riding, campouts, "zipping" nearly 800 feet across Lake Wendy, whitewater rafting, tennis, all land/court sports, theater, crafts, music, Israeli culture, dance, radio, video, newspaper, mountain biking, climbing the adjacent Appalachian Trail and a series of high-adventure rock climbing, rappelling and ropes courses. Specific age groups may also enjoy fencing, karate, ceramics or scuba diving.

Camp Barney, celebrating its 46th summer season, has created "a unique community that is all about adventure and self discovery, exhilarating activities and exciting events, being in a strong culturally Jewish environment with special friends, all under the supervision of a carefully selected group of mature, talented, conscientious, loving and enthusiastic staff," said Mr. Mittenthal.

Camp Barney annually develops new construction projects to improve its spectacular mountain facility. After recently completing a major cultural and performing arts complex including a 950-seat covered amphitheater, crafts and ceramics center and new spaces for music, dance, newspaper, radio and videography, there's much more planned for 2008 including:

lots of new sports and fitness facilities, entirely new bathrooms, jet skis, sailboats, mountain bikes, new adventures added to our High Adventures ropes courses like "sky surfing" plus beachfront and tripping programs.

Inquiries about the 2008 summer season are again far exceeding previous years and each of the two- and four-week sessions is likely to fill to capacity very rapidly. For more information about Camp Barney programs, Family Camps or other CBM adventures, please call the camp office in Atlanta at 770-395-2554 or Karen Brooks, our Camp Barney Medintz Charlotte Parent Rep, at 704-544-8404. ☆
