

Temple Israel Announces the 5768 Pilgrimage to Eastern Europe and Israel

Temple Israel's annual Israel Pilgrimage was announced Erev Yom Kippur. This year's trip is being planned by Mann Travel and Israel Tour Connection (ITC). The excursion begins with a tour of Prague followed by Shabbat with Prague's Masorti (Conservative) congregation and the Jerusalem Synagogue. The group will visit Terezin and visit the Czech, Slovakian and Hungarian countryside, followed by a tour of Buda and Pest.

Temple Israel's visit to Israel begins Erev Shabbat in Jerusalem. The week in Israel will include the new Shrine of the Book at the Israel Museum. Options for first time visitors and returnees will be included as part of the tour package in Israel. From the North to Masada, from the 11th Century BCE to the present and a glimpse of the future, from the religious expressions of the Temple of Solomon to mystic Tzefat and the vibrant Masorti community of Israel, the culture, history, evolution of Jewish religious life will be combined with interfaith dialogues and study. The trip runs from July 24 through August 8.

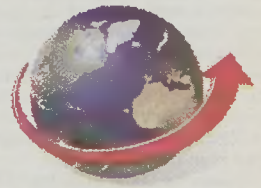

For further information please contact the Temple Israel office 704-362-2796. ☆

Join Temple Israel's New Shabbat Experience

Shabbat Around the World began Friday evening October 19. Dozens of families of Charlotte's Jewish Community celebrated Shabbat - Italian Style. Erev Shabbat services included descriptions of the Italian Jewish Community, followed by a wonderful Italian Shabbat dinner. As the year continues Shabbat experiences will include Israeli Style (December 21), Indian style (February 15), Sephardic style (April 18), American style (May 23), and Chinese style (June 20).

To be a part of these exciting Shabbat experiences, reservations can be made through the Temple Israel website at www.templeisraelinc.com. ☆

Domestic Violence Not Just Someone Else's Concern

The purpose of this event is to bring further awareness of Domestic Violence to our Community at Large and especially the Jewish community. The panel will consist of four speakers covering the following topics.

* What is domestic violence and why it is not just someone else's problem. Statistics, factual notations and what can be done, especially for the Jewish community. (JFS-Caroline Biber, LCSW Clinician)

* A Domestic Violence Unit officer's story: What happens upon first response on a domestic violence dispute. (Detective Keith Early)

* Immigrant and Cultural issues. (Danielle Lombard, United Family Services Immigrant & Cultural Outreach Specialist)

* A Survivor's Story - introduced by Marsha Stickler of Shalom Bayit

* Q & A

Temple Israel Sanctuary, 6 PM with light dessert reception and sign in; 7-8 PM - Program.

This panel discussion is open and free to our members and the Community at Large.

Please R.S.V.P. by Tuesday, November 6, to Hilary Rosenbaum: dhrose4@windstream.net or to Fran Dordick: idocolors@yahoo.com. In the subject line, write RSVP. ☆
