

5007 Providence Road, Suite #112
Charlotte, NC 28226
Change Service Requested

PRSR STD
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
PERMIT # 1208
CHARLOTTE, NC

The Charlotte JEWISH news

Vol. 30, No. 3

Adar II-Nisan 5768

April 2008

An Affiliate of the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte

Eleventh Annual Alice Tate Lectures in Judaic Studies, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Peter Ochs, Edgar Bronfman Professor of Modern Judaic Studies, University of Virginia

Sunday, April 6, 7 PM

Jewish Community Center, Gorelick
Hall, 5007 Providence Road; "A Tent of Meeting for Jewish, Christian and Muslim Scriptural Reasoners"

Monday, April 7, 3PM

Fretwell Bldg. 113, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte,
"Scriptural Reasoning: Shared Jewish-Christian-Muslim Study"

Professor Peter Ochs (PhD, Yale; MA, Jewish Theological Seminary) is also the Co-Director of the Scriptural Reasoning Research Group at the Center of Theological Inquiry in Princeton, and Co-Founder of the Society for Textual Reasoning, the Society for Scriptural Reasoning, and the Children of Abraham Institute. He was a Fulbright Senior Lecturer in Philosophy at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (1988). He is author, co-author and co-editor of many books, including Another Reformation: Post-liberal Christianity and the Jews; The Jewish-Christian Schism Revisited;

Peirce, Pragmatism, and the Logic of Scriptures; Christianity in Jewish Terms; Reasoning After Revelation: Dialogues in Postmodern Jewish Philosophy; The Return to Scripture in Judaism and Christianity; and Understanding the Rabbinical Mind. He is also co-author of "Dabru Emet" ("Speak the Truth"), a statement of principles concerning relations between Christianity and Judaism, signed by over 120 rabbis, which appeared in the New York Times (September 10, 2000).

For more information on the lecture and on the legacy of Alice Tate, please see page 20. ☆

Community Yom HaShoah Commemoration Program: Wednesday, April 30

Yom HaShoah will be commemorated this year with the screening of the Emmy-nominated documentary film Finding Family, followed by a lecture by the film's producer, Dr. Racelle Weiman.

Finding Family is the story of seven-year-old Henry (Heinzi) Blumenstein who was forced to hide among strangers during the most ruthless and cruel regimes known to history. Hidden by a poor Catholic Dutch family, Henry finds good in a world seemingly filled with evil. Many years later, Henry returns to Holland to find the family that saved his life. This film is about quiet heroism and about the continuous search for the bonds that tie humanity together.

Dr. Racelle Weiman — producer of Finding Family — is a professor at Temple University and the first director of the Center for Holocaust and Humanity Education at Hebrew University. We thank Dr. Weiman for bringing this film to our attention and for sharing her insights with our Charlotte community.

Dr. Racelle Weiman

The Yom HaShoah Community Commemoration will take place at the Sam Lerner Center for Cultural Arts at the Levine JCC. Screening will take place at 7 PM. This program is free and open to the public. The screening of this film is sponsored by Temple Israel, JCC, Temple Beth El, the Jewish Federation, and the Charlotte Jewish Film Festival. ☆

Israel at 60 events continue through April and May See page 4.

