

2008 One For All Ball Sponsorships Top $80,000

With over 40 community leaders in attendance, the sponsorship campaign for the 2008 One for All Ball launched on March 25 at the home of Deidre and Clay Grubb.

Roni Fishkin, chair of the 2008 OFAB Steering Committee announced that as of the end of March over $80,000 had been raised in support of the bi-annual event sponsored by and benefiting three of the anchor institutions in the Jewish community: Temple Israel, Temple Beth El and the Sandra and Leon Levine Jewish Community Center.

The event this year which will be held on September 6 at the Westin Hotel will honor The Shelton and William Gorelick families. The Gorelicks will be awarded the Herman Blumenthal Commitment to Community Award in recognition of their extraordinary involvement and generosity in the Charlotte.

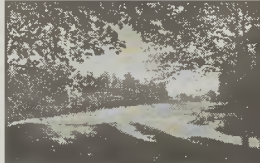

"We were thrilled to be able to kick off this important community fundraiser here at the Grubbs," said Roni Fishkin. "The Grubbs' beautiful home and gracious hospitality were the perfect setting to begin this campaign. The party, held at the Grubbs' home on Colville Road, was held to thank previous individual sponsors and recruit new sponsors for the event. We have made a great start on our overall goal and our counting on the support of the community and Deidre Grubb, Carol Gorelick, and Bill Gorelick.
