Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte Allocates $3,128,732* to Help Jews in Need in Charlotte, Israel and Worldwide

The Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte is the thread that runs through the fabric of our Jewish community, its organizations and services, connecting us all.

We support programs for Jews in need in Charlotte, Israel and throughout the world, providing food for the hungry and counseling for the troubled, spearheading rescue and relief efforts for isolated Jews in distressed regions and funding innovative Jewish educational initiatives.

We create a sense of community for more than 11,000 Jewish residents in Charlotte by creating and supporting programs to further Jewish learning, identity, pride and culture. We meet the challenge of providing for the needs of our Jewish brethren, wherever they may be, from young children and families to seniors.

The Federation is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing connection, advocacy, education and care for anyone in need through our network of beneficiary and constituency agencies and local Jewish organizations. Serving as an umbrella for the Charlotte Jewish community, the Federation carefully examines local and overseas priority needs and allocates accordingly. Because Federation giving touches so many lives, one gift is maximized to support many programs that ensure a strong vibrant Jewish community. Allocations decisions, while reflecting Jewish values, are a function of available resources, needs in the community, the expertise of a long-term relationship with Federation agencies and other partners. The allocations process is one of the primary functions the Federation fills in planning for the emerging and future needs of our community. Under the leadership of Holly Levinson and Brad Winer and their tireless committee (see box above), this year, we were able to allocate $3,128,732* to help build and maintain Jewish continuity, and to protect the interests of the Jewish people in Charlotte, in Israel and worldwide.

Giving tzedakah to an umbrella organization such as Federation, which then distributes it to a number of member agencies, has its roots in early Jewish history. In small towns and large cities, donations were given to a communal kupah as an expression of devotion to the entire Jewish people. It demonstrates a love of community that is without limitation, a proud statement of commitment to our individual community and to every individual Jew.

The largest portion of the money remains here in our local community where everyone from the smallest preschooler to the elderly, and everyone in between, directly benefits from your gift to the Federation. The remaining 30% of donations goes to Israel and Overseas needs.

The Federation thanks board members, community leaders and all others who have solicited countless contributions and attended numerous events and meetings. We also thank you, our donors, for your commitment to our Jewish community. Your values inspire us. Your strength empowers us. You are our family ... giving to others, taking responsibility and acting with loving kindness. THANK YOU FOR LIVING GENEROUSLY - It does a world of good! ☆
