

Israeli Musical Group, KOLOT, will Perform at the Yom Ha'atzmaut Celebration and Federation Annual Meeting on April 28

The Annual Meeting* of the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte will take place on Tuesday, April 28 at 7:15 PM in the Sam Lerner Center for Cultural Arts at Shalom Park. Following the Annual Meeting, at 7:45 PM, we will begin our community celebration of Yom Ha'atzmaut, Israel Independence Day. On this day, Jews commemorate the establishment of the modern state of Israel in 1948.

We are privileged to have Israeli Music Group, Kolot, as our evening entertainment sharing with us traditional Jewish and contemporary Israeli music. The name "Kolot" means "voices" in Hebrew. "Kolot" are four singers who graduated from the Israeli Military Bands. They bring the songs of Israeli Military Bands, which include within them the story of the state of Israel.

We hope the community will make a special effort to attend this very special evening.

For more information, please call the Federation at 704-944-6757. ☆

During the Annual Meeting, the 2009-2010 slate of officers and Board of Trustees will be presented, and an election will be held. Anyone contributing at least $36 to the Annual Campaign is considered a voting member.*

Space Still Available for Author Jenna Blum

The eleventh Annual Spring Lecture, sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte's Women's Campaign, is set for Thursday, April 2, in the Sandra and Leon Levine Social Hall at Temple Israel. Iris Krasnow, author of I Am My Mother's Daughter, will be this year's guest speaker. Tickets for the event are $40 for the dinner, lecture and dessert reception, or $18 for the lecture and dessert only. Seating for dinner will start at 6:30 PM and the lecture will begin at 8 PM. A suggested minimum gift of $50 from each woman attending the Spring Lecture will assist us in our efforts to raise $3,500,000 for our 2009 Annual Campaign. The money raised by the Federation Annual Campaign enables the Jewish Federation to make a difference everyday in the lives of millions of people in Charlotte, in Israel and in sixty countries around the world. To reserve your space, please call the Federation office today at 704-944-6757. ☆
