

Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center

War Is Beautiful

At the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center

In 1937 James Neugass, a young Jewish American from New Orleans, volunteered with the anti-Franco forces in Spain. A stunning memoir of wartime life chronicles Neugass' time spent as an ambulance driver during the Spanish Civil War.

Join Jim Neugass, special guest speaker, as he shares excerpts and insights from his father's memoir in a multi-media presentation.

Coffee and dessert to follow. Sunday, May 3, 7-9 PM in the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library.

Please RSVP by April 30. Contact the Library at 704-944-6783 or library@shalomcharlotte.org to RSVP or for more information. ☆
