

It's Our Turn

* Temple Beth El is moving temporarily to a new home at Shalom Park in June 2009 while we renovate and expand our current facility. Starting June 5, join us for Shabbat Services, Fridays at 6 PM and Saturdays at 11 AM in the Sam Lerner Cultural Arts Center at Shalom Park (please use the LJCC Main Entrance).

* During business hours (8:30 AM–5 PM), please use the Blumenthal Entrance for the clergy, administrative offices and gift shop. Offices for clergy and their administrative staff will reside in the corridor between the Bernstein Education Building and Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center and in the Religious School office on the first floor. Other administrative staff will be located on the third floor of the Bernstein Education Building. In both cases, please use the Blumenthal Entrance (with the covered circular driveway), which will serve as Temple Beth El's main entrance during construction.

* Meetings and programs will generally take place in the Bernstein Education Building. Participants will enter via the Blumenthal Entrance (again, this entrance will serve as Temple Beth El's main entrance). Room locations for all meetings and programs will be clearly posted at the entrance.

* Temple Beth El's Discovered Traditions Gift Shop will be opened Monday to Friday, 10 AM–3 PM, Sunday, 8:30 AM–1 PM, and Friday after Shabbat services and is located inside the Blumenthal Entrance to the Levine JCC.

* Our phone number and website will remain the same during the transition and construction: www.beth-el.com and 704-366-1948. For construction questions, please call our Transition Hotline, 704-749-3048.

Thank you for your patience as we share Shalom Park together.

70th Anniversary B'nai Mitzvah Celebration

Julius Silverman celebrated the 70th Anniversary of his Bar Mitzvah on May 23. Julius was born in Dusseldorf, Germany on April 28, 1926. He arrived in the United States on November 30, 1936. His first Bar Mitzvah took place in Jamaica, NY.

He has been a member of Temple Israel for 14 years where he is a member of Men's Club, Social Club and Points of View.

His hobbies include making wooden toys for children and tea chests for adults. Julius also made two Aronei Kodeshs for the TI Religious School. In addition, he loans out a full size baby cradle when he's apprised of a birth.

He is involved in the selections of candidates to be honored on the Jewish Wall of Fame in the Sandra and Leon Levine Jewish Community Center and is instrumental in raising the funds needed to maintain a continuity of exhibits.

Irving Beinstock celebrated his 70th anniversary of his Bar Mitzvah on May 23.

Originally from Dortmund, Germany, his first Bar Mitzvah was held on June 24, 1939 in Amsterdam, Holland.

He has been a member of Temple Israel for 34 years and is presently serving on the Board of Trustees. He is a Co-President of the TI Social Club, a Committee Member of the TI Personnel Committee, and Past Chairman of Points of View and Treasurer of the Charlotte Yiddish Institute.

Irving enjoys playing bridge, working on the computer, and being active in holocaust education. ☆

The Temple Israel Social Club

The Temple Israel Social Club, for active couples and singles, invites you to join our social group.

Meet new people and enjoy our interesting programs and trips. Call Janine Rosner, 704-366-5631 for information.

The Temple Israel Social Club Shabbat Service is on Saturday, June 27.

A kiddish luncheon will be hosted by the Social Club for the entire congregation. The special speaker will be Judge Eric Levinson who was appointed by the Justice Department to develop the Judicial System in Iraq and Afghanistan. We will hear about his interesting, informative experiences overseas.

Save Sunday, July 19, for the award winning "The Producers" at the CPPC Summer Theater.

Watch for flyers and information. ☆
