Federation Campaign Testimonial

Adam Petricoff – Participating in Jewish Community for a Lifetime

I grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio and my family was always active in the Jewish community and in Federation. For us, getting involved and giving back to the community was not an option - it was an obligation. My parents led by example and showed their three children that giving one's time and money to the community is the best contribution one can make.

During my junior year of college, I spent a semester at Tel Aviv University. Aside from seeing Israel, making life-long friendships and attending a few classes, the highlight was a March of the Living trip to Poland. There we heard Elie Weisel during his first return to Auschwitz. He talked to us about the obligation to stand up for those who can't, and the need to get involved for the sake of Jews around the world. Overcome by emotion, he couldn't finish his speech and the memories of that day and that trip are enmeshed into my Jewish consciousness.

While I was single in Chicago, I met my wife at a Young Adult event organized by the Federation. When we moved to Cincinnati, we got involved in the Young Adult Division to meet new friends and learn about the community, and when we decided to move to Charlotte, our first call was to Marvin Goldberg, then the executive director of Federation. To Wendy and me, it was the natural call. By the end of the conversation, we were signed up for the Bernstein Leadership Group. Of course we still needed to find a house to live in!

As we got acclimated to Charlotte and began to raise our family, Wendy and I continued to get involved in the Jewish community. Federation Board, Strategic Planning, Super Sunday, Chair of Bernstein Leadership Group, Allocations, Preschool President, JFS Board Member, Campaign Cabinet, Ben-Gurion Society are just a few of the activities that we have participated in as volunteers for the Jewish community.

Wendy and I still answer the call when asked to participate in Federation activities. We look forward to many more opportunities as we continue to set an example of getting involved and giving back for our children. And we look forward to seeing you at a future event. ☆
