Summertime Fun with YAD

YAD Committee member Melissa Richeson and her husband, Adam, slice peaches during the YAD Cooking Class on July 26. The class was chaired by Jenn Ruben and donated ten meals to the JFS Food Pantry.

family. This is exactly what I feel about coming to Charlotte. Just imagine having a whole huge family that you have never met – how exciting!

So today I write to you about three topics – my Charlotte family, Israel, and myself. I am looking forward to bringing everything together – meeting all of you in synagogue, in community meetings, at work or in classes with all ages, at hang out places, and at family dinners (just tell me when and I will be there).

Feel free to contact me on Facebook- Asaf Shenhav (ais-boy@walla.co.il) or by e-mail at Shaliach@jewishcharlotte.org.

See you soon! ☆
