Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center

Charlotte Jewish Film Festival Kick Off

Thursday, December 10 at 7:30 PM, Levine-Sklut Judaic Library

The Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and the Charlotte Jewish Film Festival are proud to present "ISreel: Cinematic Views of Israel."

Join us on Thursday December 10 at 7:30 PM as we kick off the Charlotte Jewish Film Society with its first movie series dedicated to Israel. Each film will explore different aspects of Israeli society and will be followed by discussion. All films are free and open to the public.

Our first film will be "Yedidiah's Collection," a sweet, yet poignant look at the withdrawal of Jewish settlers from Gaza (2005) as seen through the eyes of ten-year-old Orthodox boy named Yedidiah. This young boy's collection is no ordinary collection. He collects spent mortar shells and lighting parachutes, all evidence of the complicated reality of life he is facing. Asaf Shenhav, the community's Shaliach, will lead us in discussion on this intriguing topic.

Save the date for our next film presentation on January 24.

For more information please contact Tair Giudice at 704-944-6763 or tgiudice@shalomcharlotte.org. ☆
