Join YAD to spend an evening talking about Israel. Since moving to the Jewish state in 1998, Dr. Gordis has written and lectured in his conversational, American-focused prose about day-to-day Israeli society and the challenges facing the Jewish state. He will be speaking on "Saving Israel - How the Jewish People Can Win a War that May Never End," which is the title of his new book. Young adults 21-45 are invited to join us for wine and cheese prior to the remarks. RSVP to events@jewishcharlotte.org or 704-944-6760.

Mourning the Loss of Marvin Goldberg

Our thoughts and prayers are with the family of Marvin Goldberg, 67, who passed away peacefully on Thursday, September 17. Marvin served as the Executive Director of the Jewish Federation from 1996-2001.

He leaves his wife of 40 years, Renee (LeWinter) Goldberg; two daughters, Hallie Johnston of London, England and Elana, wife of Scott MacGilpin of West Hartford, CT; a brother, Paul Goldberg of Toledo, OH and his two beautiful grandsons, Sam and Drew MacGilpin.

He was born in Cleveland, OH and was the son of Sol and Molly (Singerman) Goldberg.

He graduated from Ohio University and received his Masters of Social Work from the University of Pennsylvania.

Marvin began his career in 1975 as the Assistant Executive Director at the original Jewish Home for the Aged on Pleasant Street in Worcester, MA, where he orchestrated the move plan to the present location of the Jewish Healthcare Center. He served as the Executive Director of the Jewish Healthcare Center until 1996, where he left a 21 year lasting legacy to the staff, its residents and their families as a loving and comforting place to both work and live.

After his tenure at the Jewish Healthcare Center, Marvin was the Executive Director of the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte (NC) from 1996-2001, and then moved on to be the Executive Director of the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo, OH.

Five years ago, he returned to the Greater Boston area, joining his wife as the Co-Director of Educational Options, LLC, as an Educational Consultant, where he continued his social work training by helping families with their children's special educational needs.

Marvin proudly served in the US Army during the Vietnam War era, and was awarded the Army Commendation Medal in 1970. Marvin was a member of Temple Emanuel, Independent Educational Consultants Association, The Jewish Federation of Central Massachusetts, National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs, and the Autism Association of New England.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Jewish Healthcare Center, 629 Salisbury St., Worcester, MA 01609. ☆
