Library News

Summer Hours

We are pleased to announce that we will maintain our current hours during the summer. In addition, we will be introducing a new Story Time Program. During these challenging times when the Public Library is being forced to reduce hours and programs, we are pleased to announce that we are expanding our hours and programs due to the generosity of our community.

Please come by and cool off this summer in the library. Please stay tuned for more details.

Free Starbucks Via coffee is being offered in the library. Come and browse our new book and extensive movie collection and enjoy a cup of java.

New to the Library

We are excited to announce our acquisition of a newly released who took refuge in the United States as a teenager and then returned to Europe as an American soldier during World War II.

The three films included in the set are God Doesn't Believe in Us Anymore (1982), Santa Fe (1985) and Welcome to Vienna (1986). The trilogy is released by the National Center for Jewish Film, based at Brandeis University.

The trilogy was recently featured in a NPR Fresh Air piece. For more information on the NPR piece go to: www.npr.org and search "Axel Corti." ☆ critically acclaimed DVD trilogy "Where to and Back" from the late Austrian director Axel Corti. The screenplay was written by Georg Stefan Troller, and the films are loosely based on Troller's life as a Viennese Jew
