

Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center

Adult Learning Program from Hebrew University Now Available in Charlotte

The Florence Melton Adult School is coming to the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library this fall.

The Florence Melton Adult Mini-School is the fastest growing, pluralistic Jewish learning program for adults, with thousands of students enrolling each year in over 60 locations worldwide. Charlotte recently joined the Melton network, as the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library was chosen to receive a prestigious Covenant Grant to offer this program in our community.

Melton goes far beyond one-shot lectures or short-term seminars, challenging adult Jewish learners to engage in Jewish learning in a serious and comprehensive way. Each lesson is designed to inspire and enlighten students irrespective of their prior experience or background. Graduates receive a Certificate of Jewish Studies from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in recognition of the significance of their learning.

The two-year, once-a-week course is designed by scholars at The Hebrew University in Jerusalem. There are no exams, no homework, no pre-requisites. The only requirement is the desire to learn.

The Jewish Historical Society of Greater Charlotte's Newest Addition

The Jewish Historical Society of Greater Charlotte received 19 issues of the Carolina Israelite, the newspaper published in Charlotte by Harry Golden. The dates of our copies range from 1959 to 1967. These issues were donated to the Historical Society by Ann Katz of Austin, TX. Ms. Katz discovered the newspapers when she was settling the estate of her mother, Mrs. M. B. Goldfarb. The archives of the Historical Society has never owned copies of these particular years of the Carolina Israelite.

These issues are in very good condition and are a historical treasure.

The Jewish Historical Society Archives serves to strengthen the collective memory of the entire greater Charlotte Jewish community. However, the Historical Society needs your help through donations of manuscripts, pictures and other items that tell the story of Charlotte and the Jewish community. We also accept financial contributions which help to fund the Historical Society and care for our collections. ✪

Hebrew Cemetery

when driving into Shalom Park upon seeing what we have accomplished. Support the work of this significant and meaningful community. The Hebrew Cemetery is a great place to start as it works to guarantee a holy and sanctified resting place for the children and adults who were the movers and shakers of our community. Come visit the cemetery. Bring your children to introduce them to the Jewish traditions surrounding this journey of the soul. You will be pleasantly inspired by the holiness and yes, beauty and serenity, that you will encounter. Call or email Cemetery Director Sandra Goldman at 704-576-1859 or 704-944-6854 or director@hebrewcemetery.org to arrange for a private tour of the cemetery or for more information about donations, membership benefits, graves, prepaid funeral costs, endowments, and/or including the cemetery in your estate planning. In the meantime, visit the cemetery website at www.hebrewceme- tury.org. If you have already decided to leave money for the cemetery in your will, we would like to thank you in advance for your generous legacy. I invite you to call Phil Warshauer, Executive Director of the Charlotte Jewish Foundation at 704-973-4544 or email him at pwarshauer@charlottejewishfoundation.org to find out how you can maximize that donation. If you have not yet considered such a gift, let Phil explain the process to you.

May the New Year bring you and those you love much sweetness, good health and shalom. If I have unintentionally offended anyone this year through these articles or through any other actions, I ask for your forgiveness.

Come visit. Directions to the cemetery: Providence Rd. north into and through uptown; right onto Graham St.; follow Graham for about two miles; left at fork in road onto Statesville Ave.; travel about 1/2 mile, the cemetery entrance will be on your left. ✪
