Hadassah Starts the New Year with Installation of Officers

By Hadas Kasher, President,
Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah

The Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah installed its new board the end of May. Outgoing President, Bunny Bramson gave the welcoming remarks and awarded Marilyn Shapiro the Crown of Hadassah Award for her work with the chapter. Janice Bernstein presented the Rosalie Ashendorf Award to Judy Kaufmann (see article below).

The Installation was made by Heidi Rotberg and reflected the close ties of Hadassah and Israel.

The 2010-2011 Board is committed, energetic and skilled. Many new members joined some of our more seasoned members, representing a variety of ages, interests and professions.

The coming year promises to be interesting, fulfilling and fun for all.

Our journey will build on the past and keep improving for the future.

As we examine the record of Hadassah's achievements over 98 years, we see a history replete – overflowing – with vision, dedication and immense determination.

We have been, and are passionately engaged in a partnership which binds us intimately with Israel and its people. The "healing of the daughter of my people" is the Zionist imperative that has spurred our work, fathered initiatives undreamt of in 1912, made dreams tangible, created a wise generosity which made possible on a grand scale: scholarships, endowments, research grants, new buildings, and equipment.

Our work changes lives locally and over the globe, our passion and creativity allows us to "heal, teach, rescue," and give voice to people in our community and around the world.

We are calling you to take an active part in our journey. Make a difference. Participate! ☆

Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah Presents Its Rosalie Citron Ashendorf Award to Judy Kaufmann

Judy Kaufmann was presented with the Rosalie Citron Ashendorf Award on May, during the Installation of Officers, held at the home of Audrey Madans.

The Rosalie Citron Ashendorf Award is the chapter's most prestigious award, and is not presented every year. Judy has worked tirelessly as our Administrative Secretary, and as a member of the Directory team in various capacities. She reaches out to the Jewish Community in many ways including teaching Mah Jongg, volunteering for Jewish Family Services, and greeting new comers to name a few.

The Award was established in 1990 to honor the Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah's first president, Rosalie Citron Ashendorf, who was the mother of long time member Deane Boxer. It is presented to those who have shown a passion for Hadassah, been actively involved for a minimum of five years, and is not given to a seated president. Past recipients are: Phyllis Boxer, Gail Greene, Berta Kaplan, Audrey Madans, Elizabeth Klein, Marsha Smith, Ruth Richardson, Lynda White, Roz Cooper, Ellie Bantit, Debby Rosenberger and Janice Bernstein. ☆
