Silver Circle Society Dinner Features Faces of Aliyah

The Jewish Federation will honor its Silver Circle Society members on Monday, October 18 at a private dinner at Temple Israel chaired by Aleen and David Epstein.

The event will feature Faces of Aliyah speakers Katya Minakova and Orit Tabay, olim who will tell their personal stories to provide a broad picture of how the Federation supports the resettlement of Israeli immigrants.

Members of the Silver Circle Society are donors who have contributed to the Jewish Federation Annual Campaign for 25 years or more.

New members of our community who have contributed to other federations for 25 years or more are eligible to attend. Please contact the Federation office at 704-944-6761 to receive an invitation.

Kayta Minakova was born and raised in Moscow to an unaffiliated family. When she was 13, she attended a summer camp sponsored by the Jewish Agency for Israel which awakened her interest in her Jewish roots. At 18 she became a JAFI summer camp counselor and in 2001 went on a birthright israel trip. In 2008, after earning her PhD in Psychology, she enrolled in a MASA program with Israel Government Fellows. Katya made the decision to make aliyah and recently spent five months living and studying at Ulpan Etzion in Jerusalem. She currently works for the Institute for Jewish Studies.

Orit Tabay was born in Israel in 1983, a year after her parents made aliyah from Ethiopia. She grew up in a Jewish Agency absorption center in Beer Sheva. Orit is currently working on her Masters degree in Educational Consultation at Bar Ilan University and is the director of Hineni, a Jewish Agency program in Beer Sheva. ☆
