

Allie Michel of Charlotte Elected International Vice President of Programming of BBYO'S Young Women's Division

Washington, DC – Allie Michel, of Charlotte, NC, has just been elected to serve as the International Vice President of Programming (S'ganit) of BBYO's young women's division, B'nai B'rith Girls (BBG). She will hold the position for a year-long term beginning in July. Michel was elected to the board of the leading worldwide pluralistic Jewish teen movement in front of more than 750 teen leaders in February at BBYO's largest-ever International Convention, held in Los Angeles, CA.

"I am very excited to work with BBYO in this capacity," said Michel, daughter of Jodi and Gary Michel. "I look forward to coordinating International Convention 2012 in Atlanta, GA as well as promoting innovative programming to councils and regions throughout the organization."

Michel, a member of Temple Israel, is a junior at Providence High School. She has been involved with BBYO's Eastern Region – North Carolina Council for three years.

"Allie has been a dedicated and enthusiastic BBG since joining in 9th grade. She quickly became involved in her local chapter and then on a regional level," said Ellen Goldstein, the Eastern Region Director of BBYO. "Her organizational skills, passion and dedication will be a tremendous asset to BBG chapters across the order. We are proud of Allie and look forward to the upcoming year." ☆

Volunteer With Hebrew High This Spring

Tikkun Olam (Repairing the World) is a core value that we stress at Hebrew High. Our curriculum emphasizes that every Jew is responsible for making the world a better place and for helping others whenever possible. We not only teach these core Jewish values, but give our students opportunities to participate in mitzvot in our Jewish and general communities.

J-Serve is a national day of Jewish teen service. On April 10, Hebrew High is teaming up with our friends from BBYO and USY for a day of volunteering in the general Charlotte. Jobs will include, landscaping, work at shelters and food preparation for the homeless and hungry in our community. For more information and to volunteer call Roz at 704-944-6782 or email rcooper@shalom-charlotte.org. ☆
