

Can you prove it's yours?

You're in a crowded room and suddenly you notice that your beautiful heirloom ring has slipped off. You frantically search the area only to find it's nowhere in sight. Even if your ring is found by a Good Samaritan, can you prove that it's yours? If your ring falls into the wrong hands, without proper documentation and insurance, it's as good as gone. An accurate appraisal by one of our 12+ appraisers is the first step to protecting items that you hold dear.

Why Perry's?

For over 34 years Perry's at SouthPark has been one of the most respected and trusted organizations in Charlotte. Our appraisal services are available to you with a simple phone call to schedule a confidential appointment in one of our 12 private offices. We'll do your appraisal while you wait!

- State of the art equipment
- More than 300 years combined experience
- Actual diamond comparison Color Master stones
- Know your diamond's true value!

Accurate Appraisals

Having your valuables appraised helps to protect, replace or identify their value in the event of the following:

- Bankruptcy
- Natural disaster
- Fires and floods
- Theft
- Proof of ownership cases/insurance
- Divorce
- Estate settling or unexpected death

Sound scary? It is. But you can rest assured knowing your treasured items are protected by having them properly appraised and documented.
