

Temple Israel Religious School Seeks Education Director

Temple Israel Religious School (TIRS) seeks an enthusiastic and creative educator with at least five years experience in Jewish education or other relevant experience to lead the school towards an innovative and dynamic future. TIRS is the 200+ student Pre K-7th grade religious school of Temple Israel – a Conservative, egalitarian congregation with more than 650 members in Charlotte, NC.

The candidate must have a quality academic foundation, a strong Judaic background, outstanding communication and administrative skills, and a track record of excellence in educating children. The candidate should be financially knowledgeable and fiscally responsible regarding the school budget and yearly planning. The ideal candidate will be able to inspire children, teachers, and parents to embrace Jewish learning and infuse the school with a sense of ruach, warmth, and spirituality.

Education and Required Skill Set:

B.A. Education or equivalent (Masters preferred)
 Strong Judaic background
 5+ years Teaching/Administrative (strongly preferred) experience

Thorough knowledge and working skill set of Microsoft Office Suite software and basic graphic design.

Salary commensurate with experience
