Saturday, November 3 at 7 PM
The A Capella fun continues. Join us for free community-wide concert. Check them out at www.six13.com. This is a Michael Meiselman Legacy Event. About Six13
Fueled by a strong Jewish identity and anchored by thumping beatbox, intricate arrangements, and soulful harmonies, Six13 is a six-man vocal band that brings an unprecedented style of Jewish music to the stage. With songs ranging from hip-hop dance tracks to rock anthems, the members of the New York-based group sound like a full band – while using nothing but their voices.

Six13 has recorded four award-winning albums, whose songs have been played all over Jewish radio and been chosen to appear on nine different “best of” compilation albums. ✪

Sunday School on Thursday for Temple Solel Students

Temple Solel is currently registering students for weekly religious school classes for the 2012-2013 school year. Classes are set to begin in October and will run till early June. Temple Solel has decided to give parents another option by holding classes on Thursday evenings instead of the traditional Sunday to allow for families to have more time together on the weekend.

Temple Solel will hold these classes at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church in Ft. Mill, in the Ministry Building. Religious education will be available for children of all ages and will learn language, prayer as well as history though a comprehensive curriculum from the Institute of Southern Jewish life.

There is still time to register, for more information visit our website or email us at info@templesolelsc.org.

Please note that we will be resuming our normal services on the 2nd and 4th Fridays of each month at: St. Philip Neri Catholic Church, Ministry Building, 292 Munn Road/State Highway 648, Fort Mill, SC 29715. ✪
